Early Life In Upper Canada

SHERWOOD

Edwin C. Snell

p. 235

Many Loyalists settlers along the St. Lawrence and the Bay of Quinte found the lumber industry more profitable than agriculture. The first timber raft from the Bay of Quinte was taken to Quebec by Samuel Sherwood in 1790; it was made up of masts cut three miles east of Trenton, and as there were no cattle in that district he used tackle to haul the logs to water.

As a final item

One final reference to the courage and ingenuity of Samuel Sherwood, is found in Mr. Edwin C. Snell's book, "Early Life in Upper Canada," in at the writer, as follows:

Morley Simpson knew of a man named Sherwood. This A. Sherwood who had two children, a son and a daughter. All are dead and gone. The daughter ^{married} ~~wrote~~ George Ross. They are long dead. Only a nephew of George survives in Brighton. ^{age 75} I talked with his wife. This man is about seventy-five, but was away in Belleville. The wife knew very little, but would explain my query as to what ~~accounted~~ happened to the account books, so that her husband, if he knows, would reply yes or no to me.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF TORONTO

CHARLES R. SANDERSON
CHIEF LIBRARIAN

2nd July, 1941

H. C. Burleigh, Esq., M.D., C.M.,
284 Frontenac Street,
Kingston, Ont.

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I am glad that you find our Preliminary Guide to the Manuscript Collection of interest. We sent copies to persons who we hoped would find the Guide interesting and the collection useful in one way or another.

The section of the Sherwood Account Book relating to Captain Sherwood's command of the Loyal Block House 1782-84, comprises (roughly) 80 pages. We usually copy by photography now, using our own camera and making a nominal charge of 15¢ a page for positive prints or 3¢ a page for film. To use the latter you would, of course, need access to a projector. I believe there is one at Queen's University, but Mr. E. C. Kyte, librarian there, could advise you.

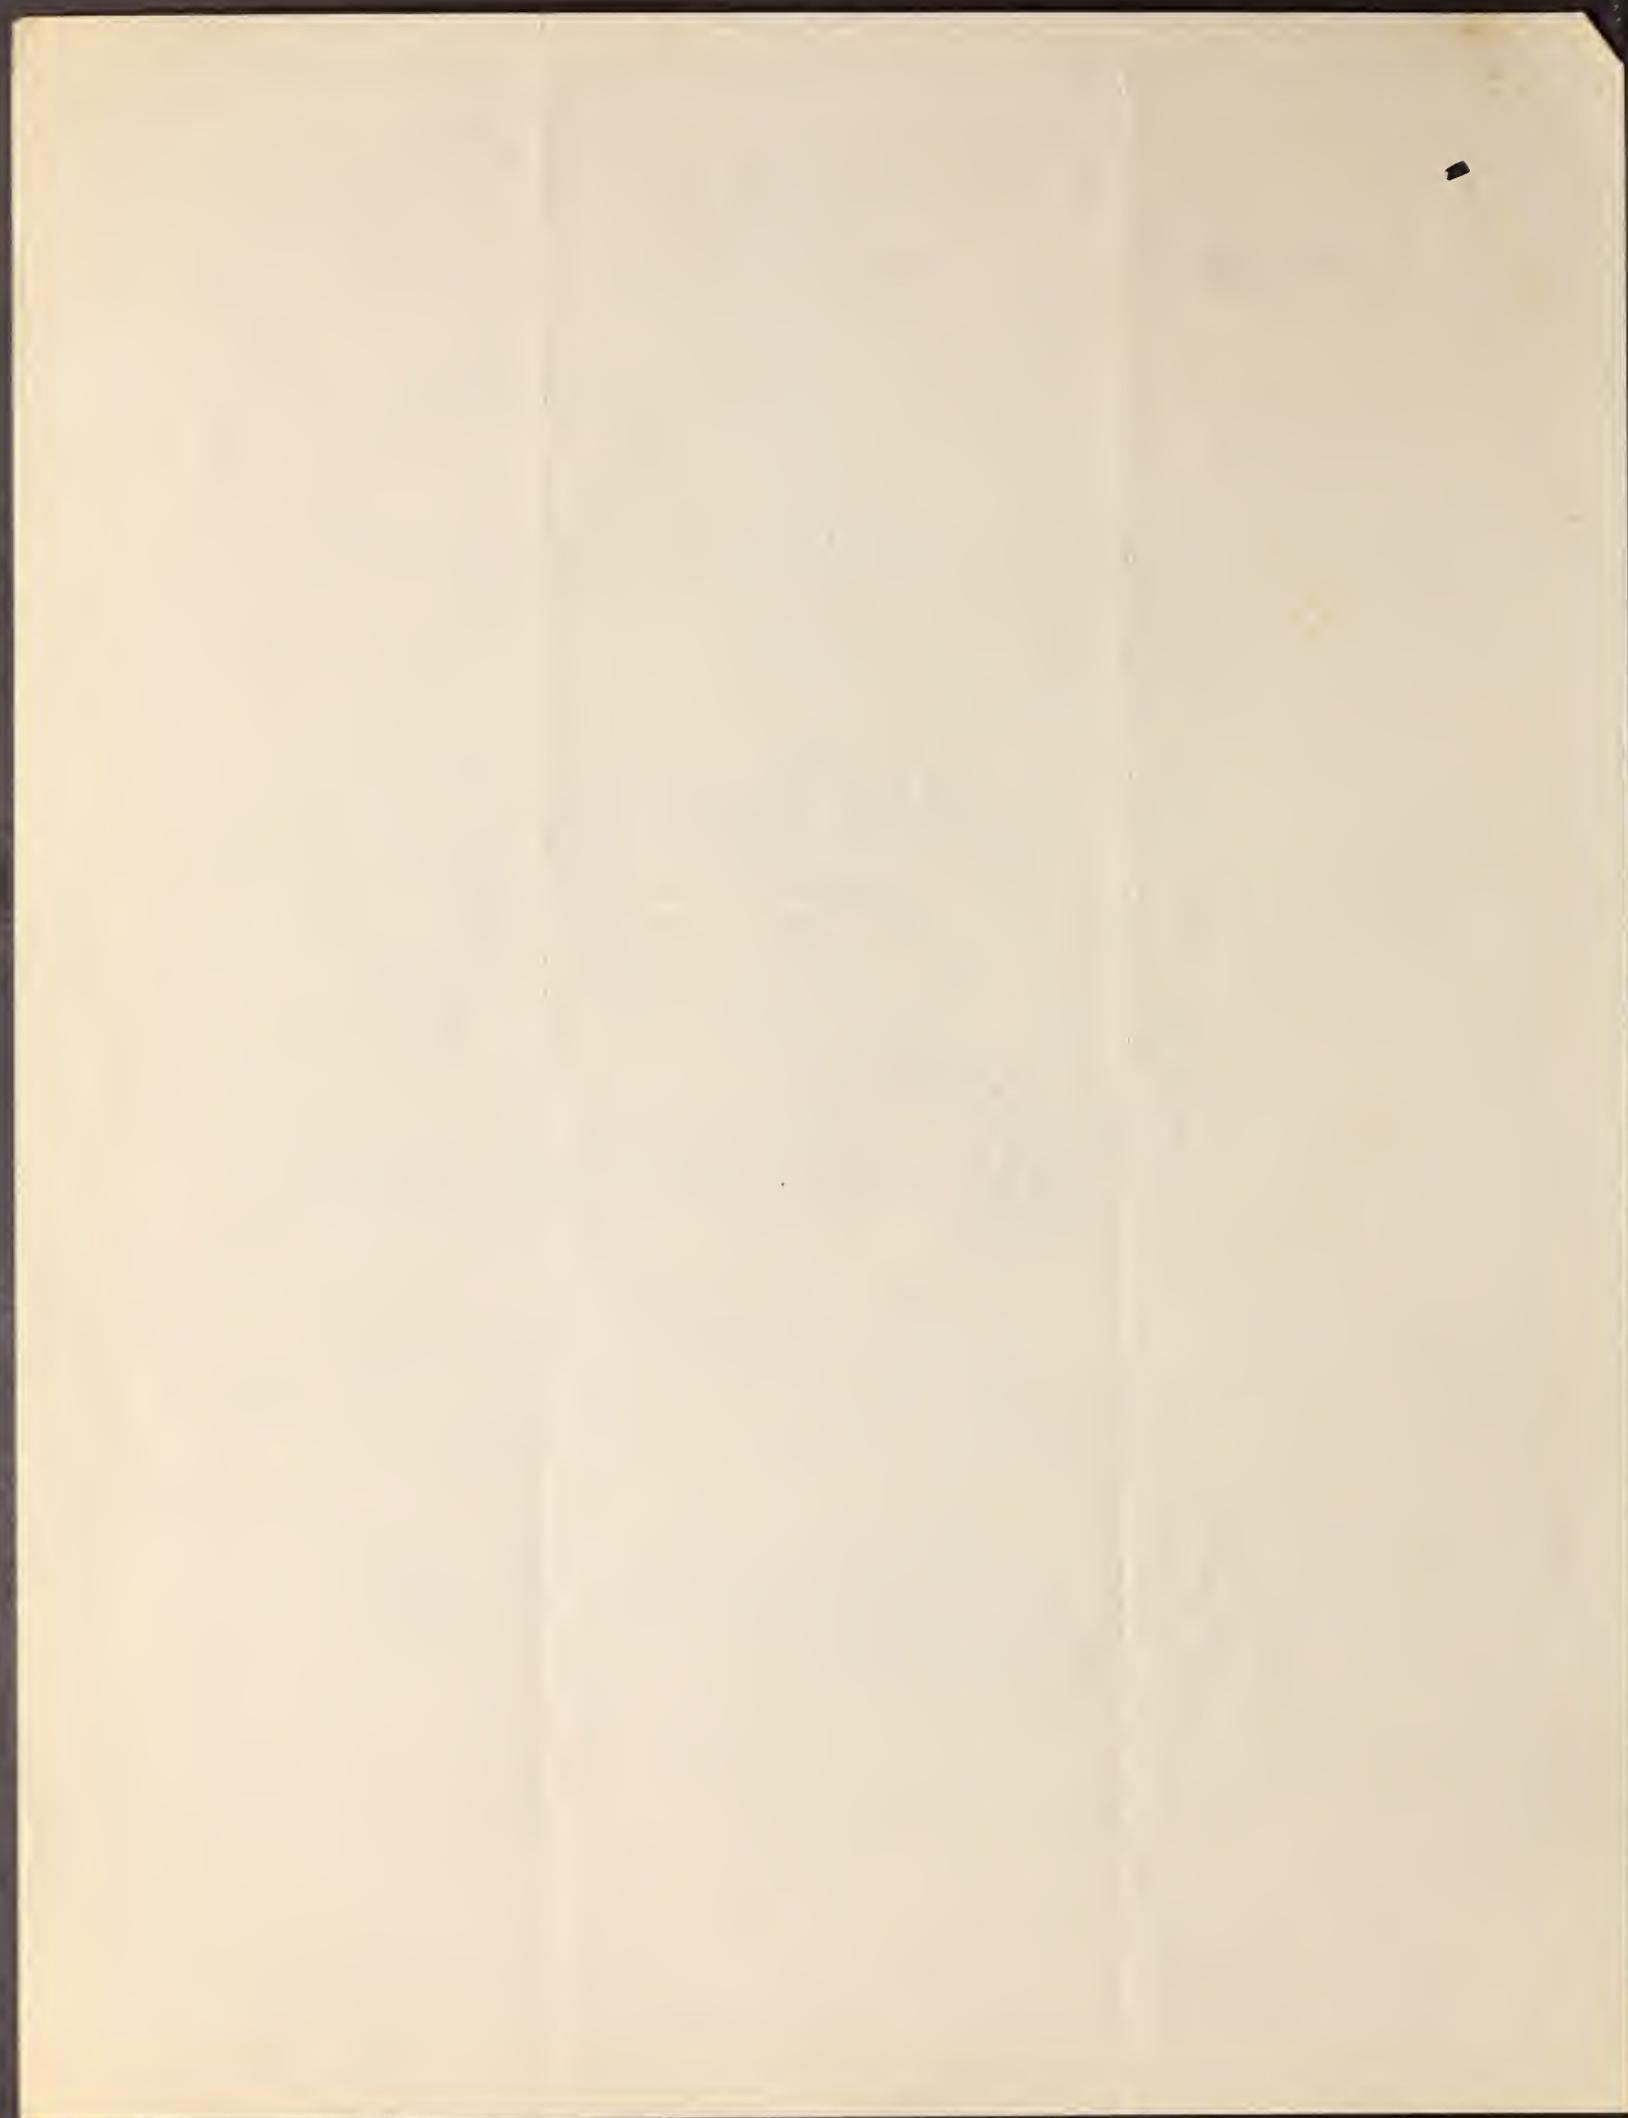

The first few pages of this manuscript, however, are in very fragile condition. We could not attempt to photograph them without risking further disintegration of paper. This text, dated "Loyal Bock House 12th Nov. 1782", is an introductory account of Sherwood's command --- very informative of conditions there.

If you could come to Toronto, letting us know in advance if it were to be on a Sunday, I would arrange for you to see the manuscript. You could read the fragile pages and indicate if you wanted the accounts themselves photographed.

Yours sincerely,

Chief Librarian

yts.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Mr. McOuat has asked me to reply to your letter of November 25th, last.

I am sorry to say that we do not have the private papers of Benjamin Seymour, apart from two or three documents in other collections which have no bearing on your question.

I had hoped to find something in land records but Lot 11, Concession I of Fredericksburg was not patented until 1803. Despite a determined search, our Government Records people had no better success.

There is a reference, unfortunately not substantiated, in Preston's Kingston Before the War of 1812, to the effect that Seymour bought the store in 1791 from Samuel Sherwood. I don't know what his source was, nor where he can be reached now.

With apologies at not being of any more help, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Seymour & Hunter had a wharf in Kingston in 1815. In 1791 Benjamin Seymour Sr., bought the store at Sandhurst from Samuel Sherwood, the first merchant to establish a business west of Kingston. Seymour was the father of Senator Benjamin Seymour (1806-80) who was born at Fredericksburg and educated at the "Royal Grammar School," Kingston.

Samuel Sharpe, a Quaker weaver and miller on the Lay of 3 miles, was without doubt the first merchant in the settlement west of the fort, the first engaged for business in the country of Redbankburgh near the present hamlet of Sandusky in 1755, and removed to the foot of Redbank Township, near the present city of Bellefonte about 1770. His ledger which has been preserved exhibits a diversity of items bought and sold under his name, vegetables, flour, etc., were accepted for pay, also salt and flour, both wheat and corn, tobacco, bacon, etc. He sold sheep and cattle, wagons, ploughs, hired horses & place out during planting & harvest, and at times supplied board and lodgings to men and beasts.

Dear Cousin Metcalfe:-

Thank you very much for your invaluable information on Samuel Sherwood of the Belleville area. He was the second Master of Thurlow Lodge No.17 (Masonic) being installed in No.6 at Kingston in 1803 with J.R. Bleecker S.W. and Caleb Gilbert as J.W. and J.W. Meyers was present. There was a Samuel Sherwood member of Royal Edward Lodge No.5 P.G.L. at Edwardsburg, U.C. who was a visitor to New Oswegathie Lodge in 1790 and in 1793 he joined No. 241 E.R. (A) in the Royal Artillery then in St. Johns, Quebec. Is he the same man?

Do not answer this letter until I have the time to give you all my information with sources, most of which are from Canniff, John Ross Robertson's History of Masonry and Ontario Historical Society (Vol xxl page 48, Capt. Reuben S. & Lieut. Kotte, page 51 speaks of Capt J. Sherwood, 1783) Sabine Vol 11 p. 297 speaks of Abijah, Jonathan & Justus grantees at St. John N.B. & that Justus died in King's Co. in 1783 aged 84, p. 576 Ebenezer & John of Connecticut, John a member of the Reading Loyalist Association. My last reference is Pringle's Lunenburgh or Old Eastern District P. 415 Captain-Lieutenant Samuel Sherwood (Grenville) 1803, (Militia) p. 391 shows two Samuel Sherwoods, both in L.R. 58th Lt at Thurlow, Capt at E. Richardson

1. John Brownson (1), believed to have been one of the company who came with Mr. Hooker to Hartford in 1636; was in the bloody Pequot battle of 1637. He removed to Tunxis (Farmington) about 1641; and was one of the seven pillars at the organization of the Farmington church in 1652. He died Nov. 28, 1680.
Children:
 2. Jacob (2), born January, 1641. See below.
 3. John (2), born January, 1644.
 4. Isaac (2), born November, 1645.
 5. Mary.
 6. Abraham; removed to Lyme.
 7. Dorcas.
 8. Sarah.
2. Jacob Brownson (2), son of John Brownson (1) and Mary ----, and resided in Farmington, in Kensington Society Church.
 9. Samuel (3), born in 1685; settled in Milford (New). See below.
 10. Jacob, of Kensington.
 11. Roger (3), born in 1692 (?); settled in New Milford.
 12. Isaac (3), of Lyme.
 13. Elizabeth (3).
 14. Rebecca (3).
9. Samuel Brownson (3), son of Jacob and Mary Brownson, married Lydia ----, probably in Kensington. He settled in New Milford in 1713, and became a prominent man in the State as a member of the Governor's Court. He died Oct. 27, 1733. Lydia, his widow, married Jonathan Lum, of Derby, March 2, 1742. Children:
 15. Lydia (4), born Feb. 23, 1702; married Ezekiel Duck (q.v.).
 16. Thomas (4), born 6 Feb., 1704.
 17. Rebecca (4), born 14 Feb., 1708; married Samuel Hitchcock, Jr.
 18. Jacob (4), born 24 April, 1711.
 19. Margaret (4), born 3 Oct., 1715.
 20. Samuel (4), born 16 July, 1721, (aged 61 or 67 in a list of Feb. 24, 1783, War Office Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont.)
20. Samuel Brownson (4), Jr., son of Samuel and Lydia Brownson, married Elizabeth ----. (She was a daughter of William and Mary Bradshaw, and born about 1726. According to the Haldimand Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont., she was 60 years of age in 1781. Gordon Crouse's Memorial to Captain Bradshaw, see Haldimand Papers, states that Samuel was 60 years of age in 1781).
Children:
 40. Tamar (5), born 2 Nov., 1749. (She is likely the wife of Asa Richardson, U. E., who settled in Fredericksburgh Township in 1784.)
 41. Anna (5), born 9 Jan., 1752. (She was the wife of Thomas Sherwood, U. E.).
 42. Samuel (5), born 14 July, 1755. (According to a list of 21 Jan., 1783, he was 23 years of age. War Office Papers, Public Archives, Ottawa, Ont.).
(This should be 28 years of age.)
 43. Elizabeth (5), born 28 August, 1756. (The Land Books of Ontario contain the application of Oliver Arnold for lands for his wife, a daughter of Samuel Brownson, Senr., dated 12 July, 1798. This is likely Elizabeth.).

Dr H. C Burleigh
Dear Sir:

Very pleased to receive your letter & very pleased to hear you are working for your local Historical Society. I have been a volunteer worker at Fairfield Historical Society Fairfield Conn for five years & the work is fascinating. We have just moved into a new $100,000 building which is very beautiful but still not large enough to exhibit all interesting material. I have Sherwoods in my direct line on paternal side but I cannot do anything further in searching until Sept as my children are home now.

One of my Hubbell ancestors was a Toy & went to Nova Scotia.
married twice & had 24 children
He is buried here in my home town
Trumbull Conn about 2 miles distant.

I will write again later

Yours truly
Phyllis Dr Holmes

Dear Sir,

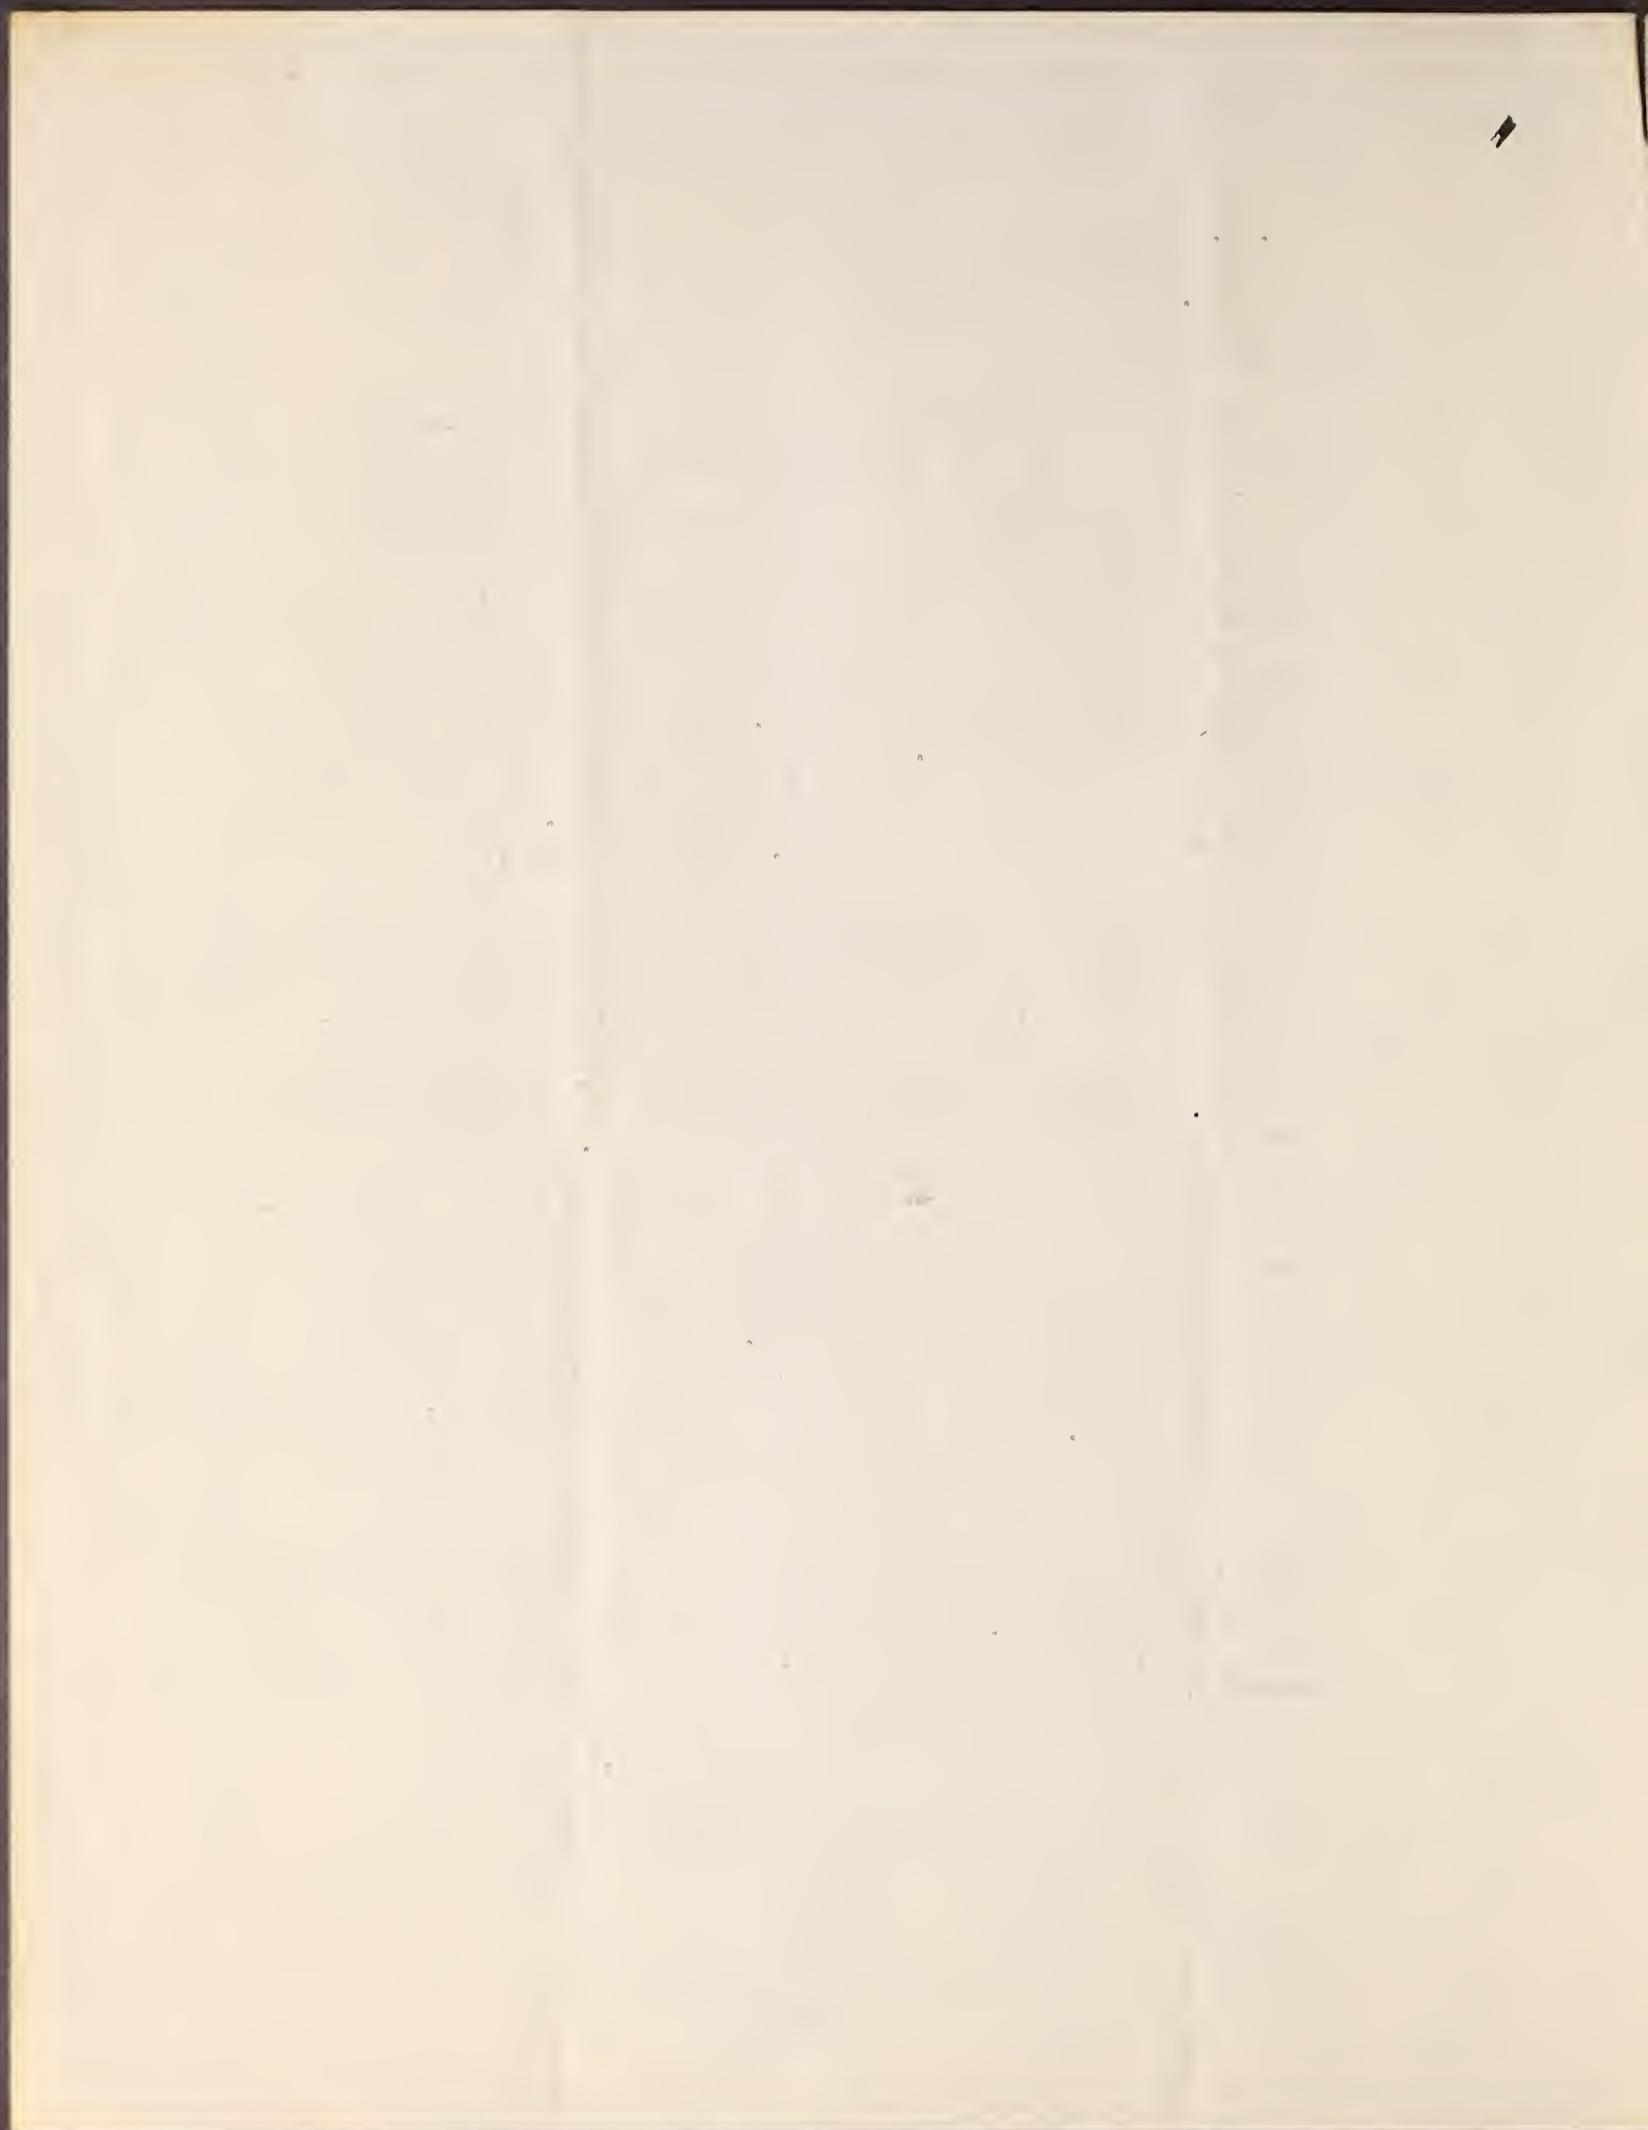

I do not know if you are the famous composer-arranger but your name has long been in my "music library" and I salute you. Your letter came this date and I have transcribed what paltry records Harry Ferris Johnston has collected and submit them herewith. They are in a bit better form (I think) than as presented but hope you will find something in them. I had not known in my original reply to BIB's column how deeply you wanted the problem "dug" so thought you would, indeed, write--as you did. And I am most happy to have made your acquaintance and to have acquired data on this Harvey Rood. He is an "unident" as far as I am concerned right now. Others (and there are not many) of the name Harvey are all tagged and I had no Bible record or other thing to make me suspect I had missed this one. When I locate his lineage I will send you word. Thank you again.

My mind tells me that SOMEWHERE recently I saw news of a new Sherwood genealogy, but whether it was Thomas of Fairfield (which wouldn't interest you) or Thomas₁ of Stratford (which would) I cannot remember. When I recall or refind, I shall send it.

I know so little about "Charlotte Co." (later Washington Co.) N.Y. records, but that they do exist, I assure, and if you could find them, perhaps they would help you. I know that at Salem, Washington Co. (county seat, I believe) I found some Rood data for which I had been searching (in wills) and perhaps a letter to the Surrogate's Court there would prove valuable if you need the type of data found in wills. Undoubtedly, too, there should be a record of the date that Seth₅ and Adiel₅ (if they were Tories, which the Hist. of Ft. Edward makes me doubt) sold their land or had it confiscated. Obviously, if Seth₅ and Thomas₅ lived in USA after 1789 they were Loyalists (Amer. version) and not Tories. Perhaps it was Seth₅ (and not Thomas₅) who was the Tory (and the Ontario history definitely says that one was).

Unfortunately, though I have given you what YA says of Seth₄, if it is Seth₅'s family in which you are interested, I cannot give it--Harry Johnston's record does not include it, and I am not a Sherwood searcher. If there be any further thing which I can do for you, please make it known. Again my thanks for the Rood records.

Sincerely,
Robert Buell

Settlement of Upper Canada.

Canniff.

In the former part of the last century there were born three brothers, Seth, Thomas, and Adiel Sherwood, in old Stratford, in the Province of Connecticut. The three brothers removed 1743, to New York State, five miles north of Fort Edward, within a short distance of the spot where Burgoyne surrendered. At the commencement of the rebellion, Seth and Adiel identified themselves with the rebel party, becoming officers in the army, while Thomas adhered to his sovereign. It was probably after the defeat of Burgoyne, when he proceeded to St. John, Lower Canada, and was subsequently employed by the British government on secret service in the revolting state. His knowledge of the country enabled him to bring from the territory of the enemy not a few who were desirous of serving in the British army. In 1779 his family removed to St. Johns, and he received an appointment as subaltern in Major Jersey's corps.

At the close of the war, Thomas Sherwood came with his corps to the St. Lawrence, and became the first actual settler in the county of 1798. The following officers were commissioned in December following:— Captain Samuel Sherwood.

Slavery

Samuel Sherwood, writing to a person at Kingston, from Thurlow, in Oct. 1793, says, "My negro boy, and Canadian boy have absented themselves last night without leave. I send Jim and two Indians in pursuit of them. I beg. if you can give any assistance, that you will do me that service. McLean's black woman is my boy's mother, he may call to see her

Leeds. He was well known as an active public man, "he was ever ready to give assistance and instructions to the new comers." He also assisted in the first survey of that part. He was among the first magistrates. He lived on his farm forty-two years, and died, aged 81, in peace. (? died 1826, born 1745?)

Cediel Sherwood, from whom we receive the foregoing facts, was the son of Thomas, and was born at the homestead in New York State, 16th May, 1779, shortly before the family left for Canada. He says: "I remained with the family at St. Johns until May 1784, when we came in the very first brigade of batteaux to the Upper Province, where my father pitched his tent about three miles below Brockville, so that I may say I saw the first tree cut, and the first hill of corn and potatoes planted by an actual settler." Mr. Cediel Sherwood at an early age, 1796, was appointed an ensign in the first regiment of Leeds Militia. He was promoted from time to time until he became Colonel. He was commissioned a Magistrate, Clerk of the Peace, Commissioner of Land Board, and finally Sheriff for the district of Johnstown. He was connected with the militia fifty years, when he retired on full rank. Was Treasurer of the District twenty-five years, and Sheriff thirty-five. Mr. Sherwood still lives (1859), an active, genial and christian-minded gentleman, and we take this occasion to express our feelings of gratitude for his assistance and sympathy in this our undertaking.

The late Colonel Wilkins, of the Carrying Place, says that when he came up to the bay, in 1792, Myers had his mill built, the one farthest west, until they came to where is now Port Hope.

Notes taken re the Loyal Block House on Dutchman's Farm.

In the Historical Department of the Plattsburg Republican for May 23, 1896, appeared this query: "British evacuation of Lake Champlain. Date wanted. Some time during the year 1896 there will be celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of the final relinquishment by the British of their military posts on Lake Champlain after the close of the Revolution, under the Jay treaty of 1794. The ascertainment of the exact time of this event is an important desideratum. Can any of our readers furnish data which will facilitate this inquiry? When did the British finally relinquish their possession of Lake Champlain to the United States? These military posts were at Point au Fer and the Loyal Block House, or Dutchman's Farm."

At the time of the publication of this query in the Republican, the Hon. John B. Riley of Plattsburg was American Consul General at Ottawa, and through him as I have understood, Dr. Bixby was enabled to publish in the next succeeding issue of the Republican, May 30, 1896, the following most valuable and enlightened historical document, copied through Judge Riley's kindness from the Dominion Archives at Ottawa.

Dominion Archives, Haldimand Papers. Series B. Vol. 176. Page 142.

Dutchman's Farm, 1st July, 1781.

Sir,--I arrived here yesterday with 23 men including old men, Boys & unincorporated Loyalists. I am building an oven & hutting the men; shall begin to-morrow felling timber for the blockhouse.

Timber is not so plenty here as I expected & must draw it a mile at least. I find that I was mistaken in supposing the point I shewed His Excellency on the map to be the Dutchman's Farm. It is about 200 yards east of that point & being separated from it by a narrow channel makes part of the Grand Isle.

However, it is the place that I meant to point out to the General & as it is every way situated (in my opinion) to answer the purpose intended we shall proceed to get the timber & bring it together, after which if I have no orders to the contrary we shall set up the house. I think any ship in the Lake may lie with safety in the channel above mentioned. The spot on which I propose setting the Block House is a rise just at the extremity of the point about five yards higher than the other ground & may be fronted with an abatis of about 50 yards in length from water to water. The plain beyond this is level & entirely clear to a distance of near one hundred yards northward.

From this point we have a southern view of the Lake near four leagues but cannot see above half a league northward on the Lake. The Isle a Motte prevents our seeing what passes to the westward between Pt. o Fare and Rush Point.

I am informed by Mr. Saunders, Asst. Engineer, that this is a bad season to cut oak, hickory and cherry or birch timber as it will be too open and brittle for any fine work or for duration. I likewise find the rapids so low that a raft cannot be taken down till the fall of the year, but the pine timber can be cut in & formed into a raft. The hickory & oak can be cut in October, & then deliver'd at Quebec in November.

Mr. Saunders wishes to have a party of my men to assist him in getting hay at Missisquoi. I suppose I could place them in such a manner as to serve the purpose of guarding him & at the same time be able to discover any scouts from Vermont by the way of the Onion River, but I mention this only by Mr. Saunderson's request. I enclose Levi Warner's report, & beg you will please to let me know His Excellency's pleasure on the different subjects herein mentioned.

I am with much respect & esteem,

Sir, your most obed't hum'l servant,

J. Sherwood.

(to) Captain Mathews.

The report of Levi Warner mentioned in the foregoing letter is as follows:

"Levi Warner arriv'd from Connect River the 28th of June & reports that Joseph Taylor, a Rebel Spy, is in Canada at Belle Isle where he has been some time secreted by the Canadians. Soon after Col. Allen's report was read & the whole Convention except two men voted to accept of Gen'l Haldimand's proposals to Vermont. Judge Jones is made Chief Justice & Cols. Wells & Alcot, Royalists, Ass't Judges for Vermont. The people on the east side almost all in favour of Gov'r & intend to join with Canada if they can, but they are very much afraid of the people on the west side of the mountain who are almost all Rebels & begin to threaten Gov'r Chittenden & the Allens very much."

From the Dominion Archives, Haldimand Papers, Series B, Vol. 176, at page 184, the following extract from a letter to Captain Mathews from Captain Sherwood is taken. (Capt. Mathews was Secretary to Governor Frederick Haldimand.)

Loyal Block House, July 29th, 1781.

I have built a very good and large block house & on the most advantageous spot of any on the Lake. I wish I knew whether it was to be an established post as in that case it should be picqueted.

It is my humble opinion that there is not so proper a place on the Frontiers as this for the residence & departure of secret scouts & I think when the Block House is Picqueted 50 men may defend it against 300 with small arms as two or three swivels may be placed in it to advantage.

Dominion Archives, Haldimand Papers, B. 162, page 168.

St. John's, 22nd Jan'y, 1784.

Sir:

I take this liberty of troubling you with an affair, which I hope will not appear disagreeable nor offensive, but will interest Your Kind Interference and Assistance as you shall judge best in the matter.

I had the Honor to Command the Loyal Block House for seven or eight months during which time I was visited by many Passing and Repassing to and from the Colonies, on Acc't of which I was obliged to support the Dignity of an Officer, to be at no small expense, more than my pay was sufficient to support. Not doubting, with your Representation, but the Commander in Chief will take it into consideration, I submit the whole to your discretion, and at the same time refer you to Captain Sherwood for particulars.

I am Sir with much respect,

Your most obt. Servant,

Major Mathews,
Quebec.

J. Dusenbury,

Ens. L. B.

Dominion Archives, Haldimand Papers, B. 162, page 22.

St. John's, 28th March, 1784.

I have sold my farm at Dutchman's Point, to a Dr. Washburn of Vermont, reserving the Block House as King's property. Mr. Washburn seems very anxious to know when the King's Garrison will be withdrawn from there, and particularly requests me to inform him several days before it takes place, but I have assured him that he is not to expect any information from me on that subject without permission and direction from His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

I am with great Respect,

Sir your most obedient and most Humble servant,

J. Sherwood.

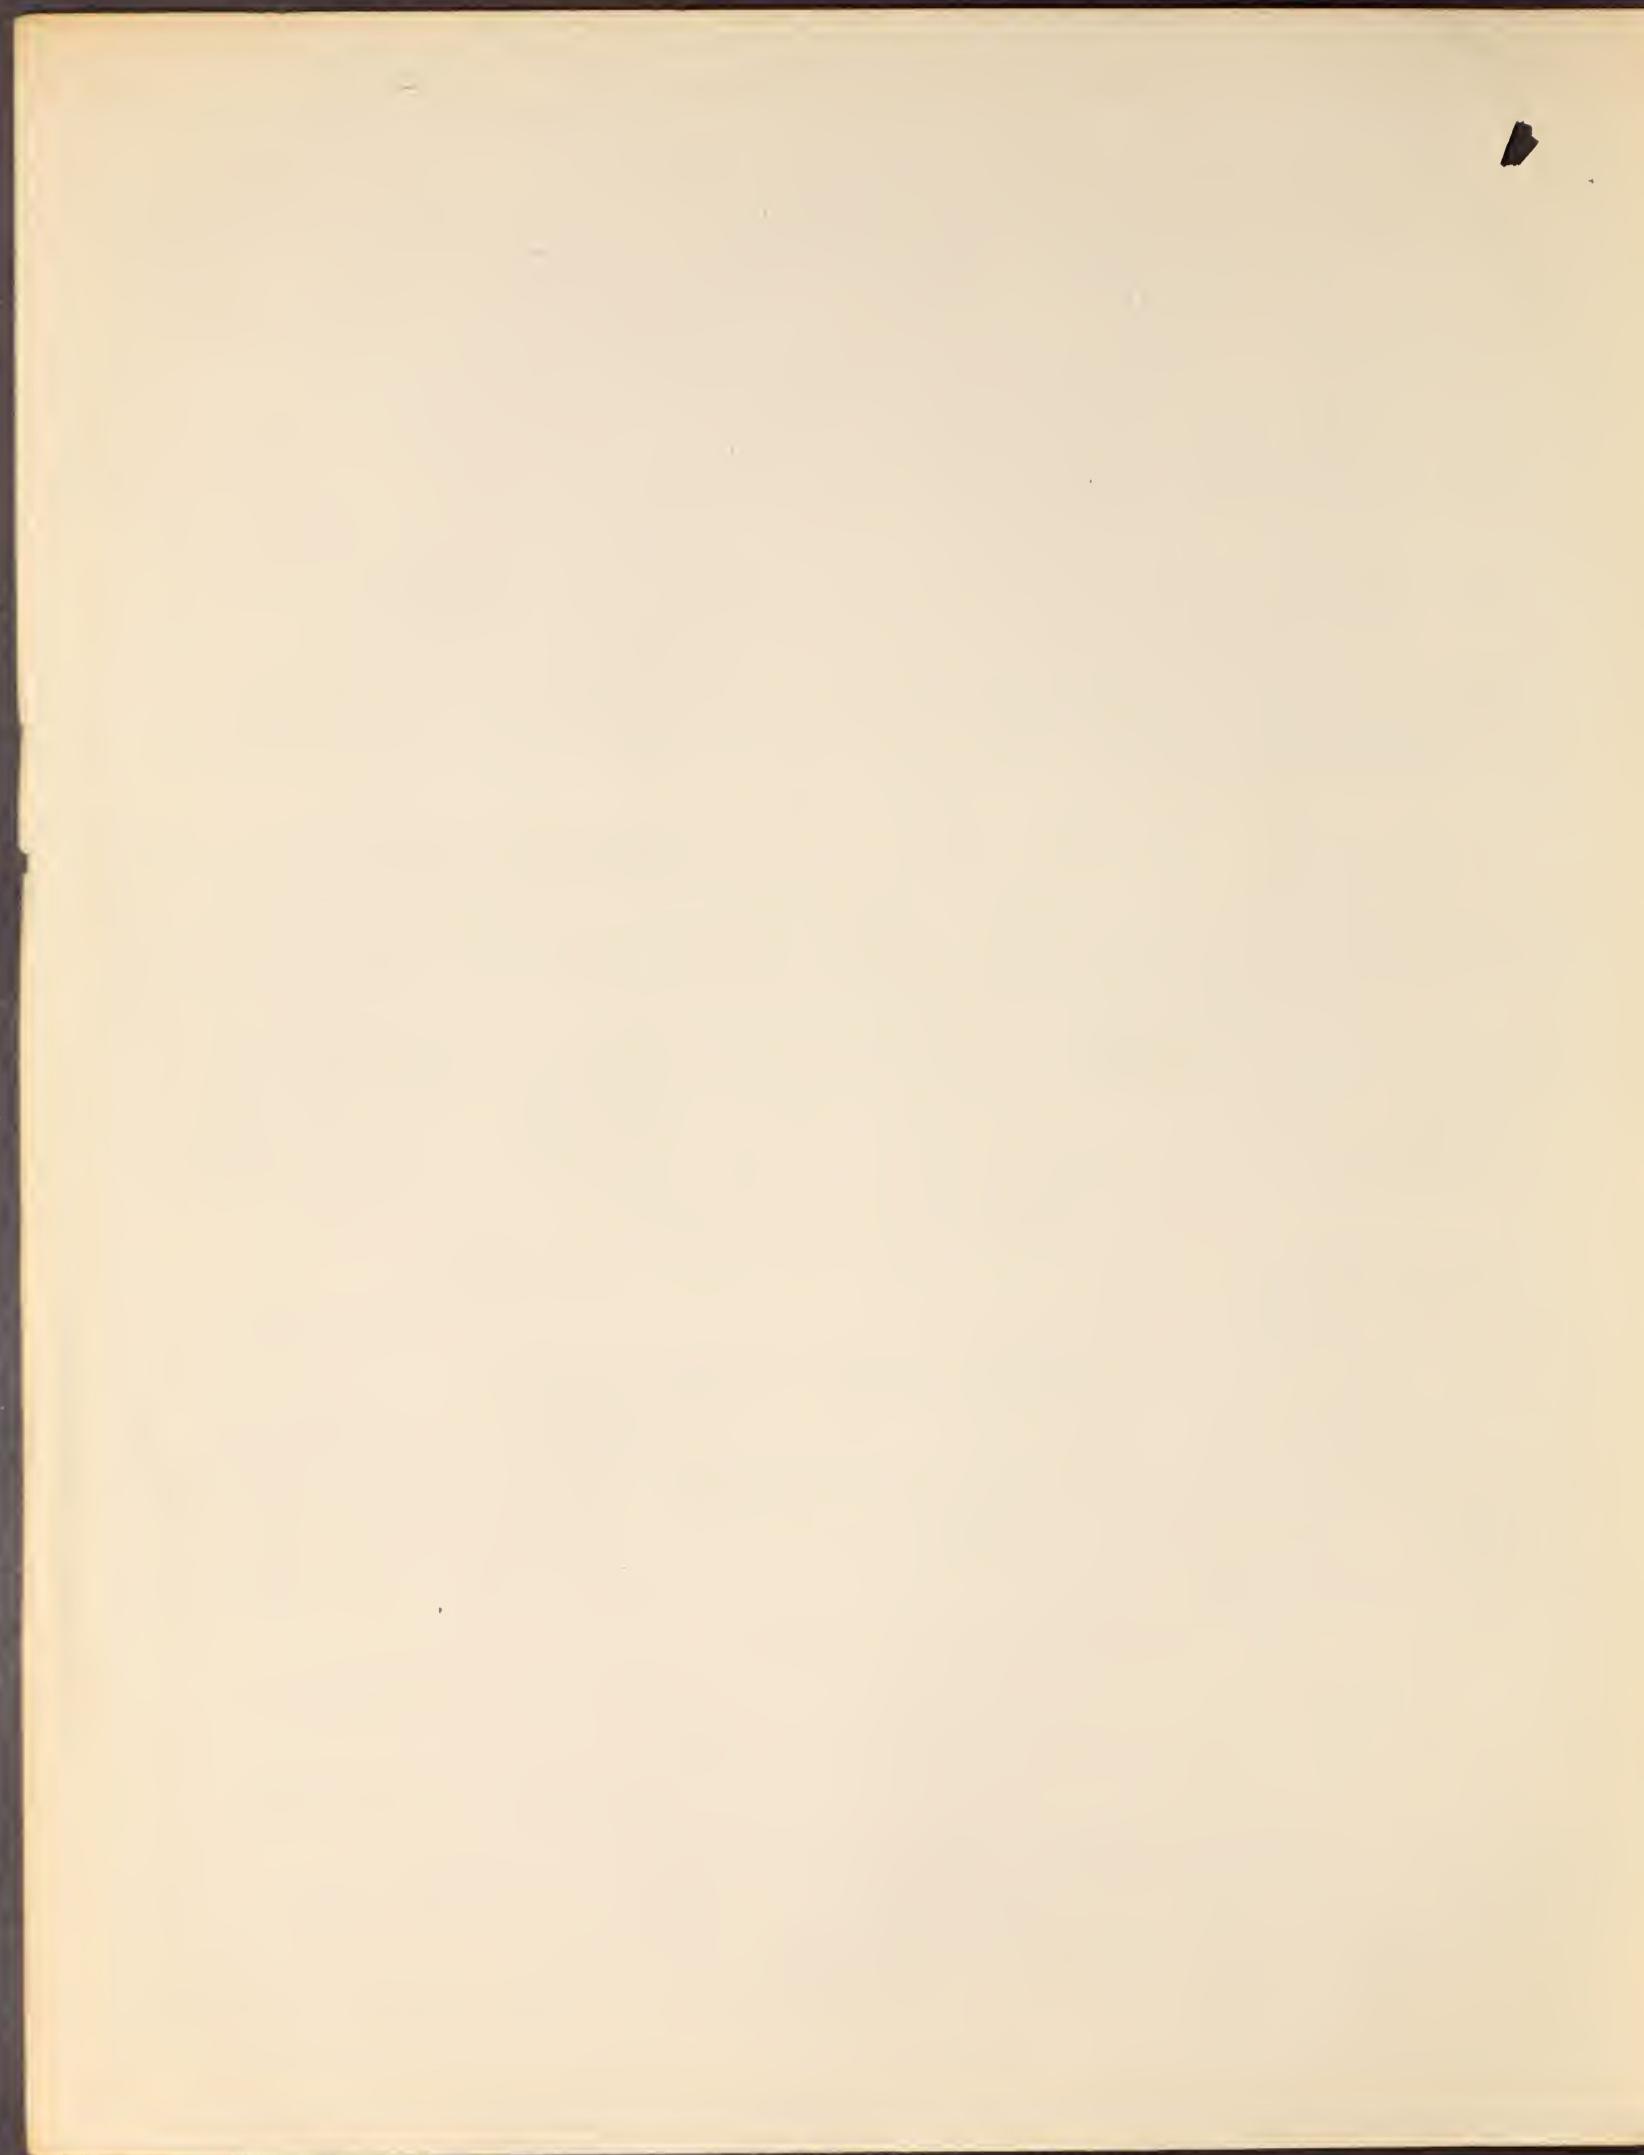

Dominion Archives, Haldimand Papers, B. 175, page 268.

Arlington, April 15th, 1784.

Sir:-

Since peace has taken place between Great Britain and America and as in consequence thereof the British Post on the Island now called Hero's in this State, named the Loyal Block House, will probably be evacuated some time this year.

I shall esteem it a mark of your Excellency's favour if you would direct the Commanding Officer of the Post to certify to me the time of its evacuation, that an Officer from this State may take possession thereof.

Such a favour will be gratefully acknowledged by,

Sir, your Excellency's most obedient Humble Servant,
(to) His Excell'y
Gen'l Haldimand.

Thos. Chittenden.

It is positively known that this post was garrisoned by British troops as late as September 20, 1792. This is shown by the affidavit of that date of Ebenezer Marvin, of Alburgh, which is found in Vermont Papers, Volume 30, page 181. In it he states. "The British have another post at Dutchman's Point on North Hero," and "The garrison at Dutchman's Point has never interfered in any way with the inhabitants or done any thing besides keeping their own sentries."

The exact date when this post was given up, or evacuated by the British authorities, is not shown in any records which have been accessible to the writer. The official correspondence in the Canadian Archives simply shows that the posts on Lake Champlain were to be given up by the British, some time during the summer of 1796, exactly when, a careful search of the records does not disclose. The records of the United States at Washington are equally silent on the subject.

And what of the builder?

Justus Sherwood, a native of Connecticut, and of English stock, was an early settler in New Haven, Vermont, whence he came in the year 1774, settling on the farm, on Lanesboro Street, afterwards owned by Judge Elias Bottum, and still known as the Bottum place. It was Lot No. 31 of the town as laid out under its charter from Governor Benning Wentworth of New Hampshire. I am informed by Mr. Clark, who visited the site of Justus Sherwood's old home last fall, that a house erected by Captain Sherwood is still standing there.

He was proprietor's clerk of New Haven from 1774 to 1776, when, as the records have it: "He was a Tory and fled to Canada."

Justus Sherwood, after leaving New Haven, appears to have taken up his residence, during the war at least, at St. John's, in the neighboring Province of Quebec, Canada. It was from here we may assume that he was commissioned a Captain, in the Partizan Corps raised from among the American Loyalists, and known as the "Queen's Loyal Rangers." This Corps was commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel John Peters, a native of Hebron, Connecticut, and also, as was Justus Sherwood, a consistent Loyalist.

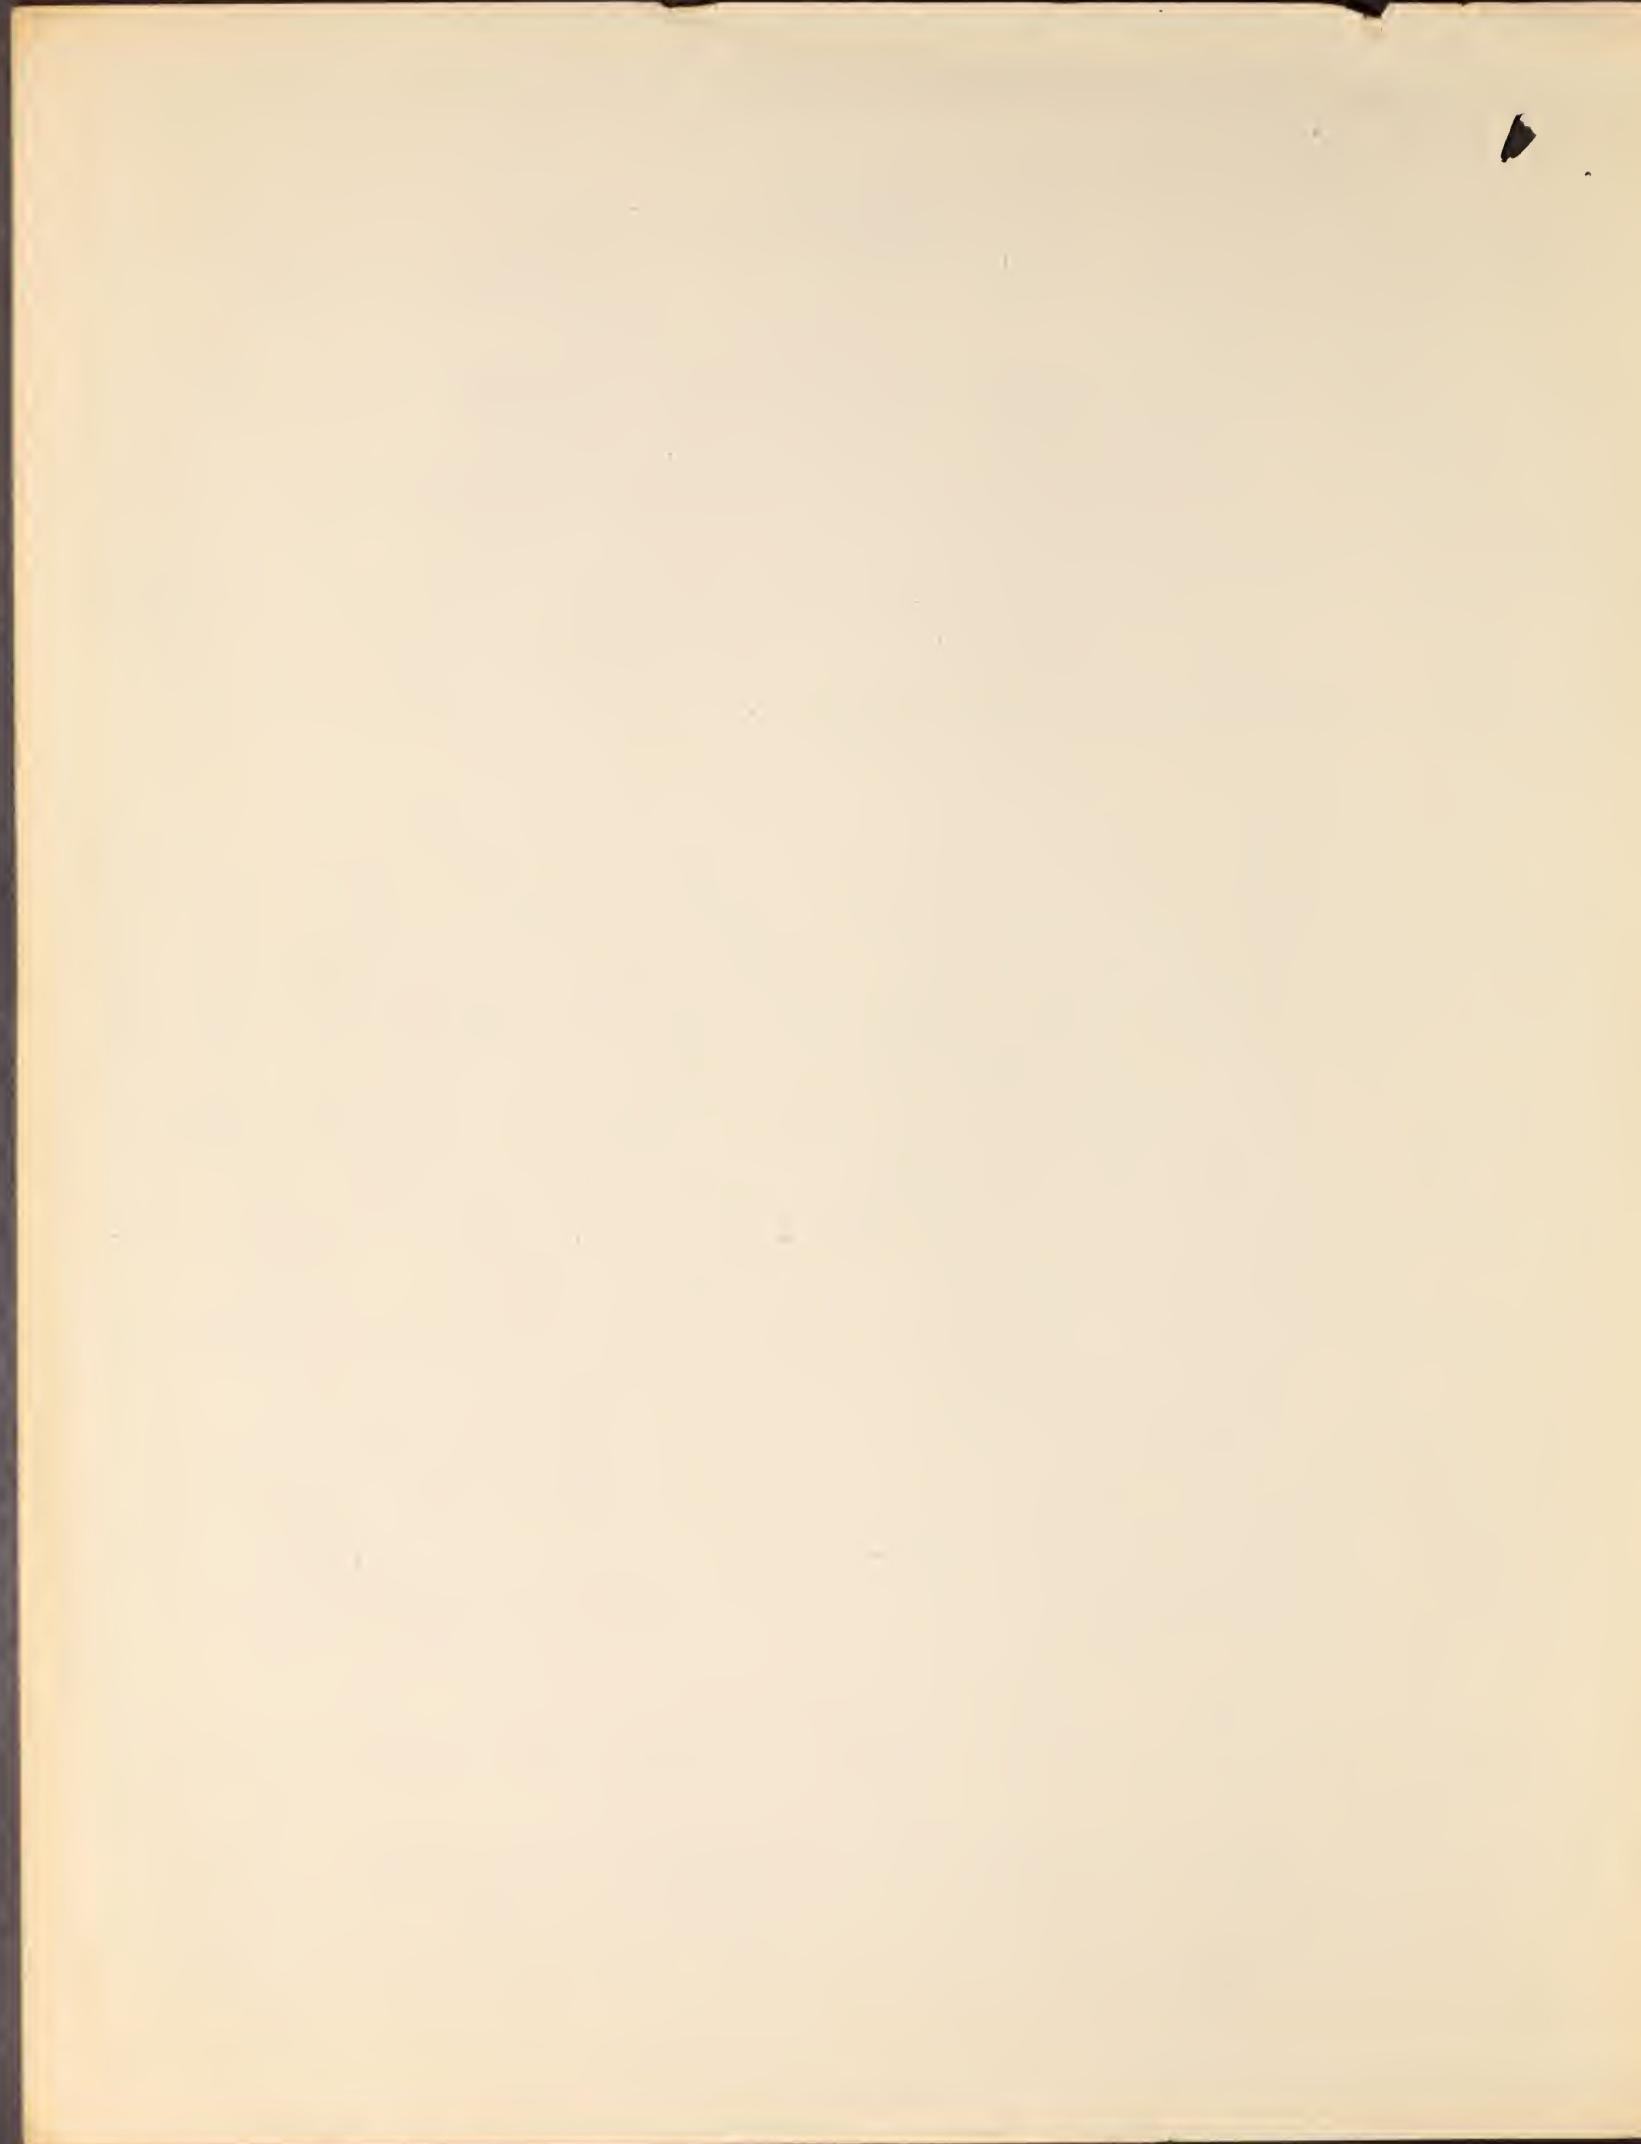

That the Regiment, or a portion of it, was engaged at the Battle of Bennington, history relates, and it is said that in that action Captain Justus Sherwood "behaved with gallantry." Colonel Peters says of him that he was "active," that he was "a man of culture," that he was "forward in every enterprise of danger to the end of the campaign."

Of the service of the Regiment, as a Regiment, and of the services of Captain Sherwood with it, aside from the above, the details given by written history are meagre, but of the detached service of Captain Sherwood, in enterprises similar to the building of the work where we satnd to-day, the Canadian Archives are filled. The trusted officer of the representative of his Sovereign in Canada, he was throughout the war, "forward," not only as his Colonel states, "in every service of danger," but in every enterprise of the Crown in Canada, which called for the services of a man of known intelligence, skill, and tried and true loyalty to his King.

The accounts of the labours of Justus Sherwood, in the land to which he "fled," are written large in the history of the Dominion.

Subsequent to the war, Justus Sherwood was granted by the Canadian Government, a tract of 1,000 acres of land near Brockville, Ontario, upon which he settled, and where he died.

And what was our loss was Canada's gain. In every subsequent generation the Sherwood family have been distinguished. Justus Sherwood's son, Livius Peters Sherwood, born in J.S. John's, in 1777, was a man learned in the law, Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench, Speaker of Parliament of Upper Canada, and a Colonel in the War of 1812. His son, Edward Sherwood, removing from Brockville, Ontario, to what was subsequently selected as the Capital of the Dominion, also engaged in a distinguished career at the bar. And of his son, your honoured guest to-day, and of his long and honourable career in the public service of Canada, it is my high privilege to speak. For thirty-one years Superintendent of Dominion Police, a Lieutenant of the Governor-General's Foot Guards, Captain, Major, and Lieutenant-Colonel commanding the 43rd Rifles, a member of the Canadian Rifle Team at Wimbledon in 1885 and 1889, President of the Canadian Military Rifle League, and Captain of the Canadian Rifle Team at Bisley in 1903, Honorary Aide de Camp to Lord Minto, Earl Grey, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and member Victorian Order--and his son who is here to-day, serving his King, as have his forebears, faithfully and well.

Dear Cousin Metcalfe:-

I would like to know if there were two Captain Samuel Sherwoods in 1802, one of Thurlow and one of Grenville. or were they one and the same. I can furnish you more information on each and my sources of information if required such as the father of the one in the Johnston district was Justus Sherwood, and was a Mason as were both ? Samuels. The Johnston Samuel was articled in St Johns Quebec and appointed as the first lawyer in the Johnstown district was Clerk of the Surrogate Court therd, a member of Royal Edward Lodge No,5 P.G.L. of Quebec (situated in Johnston Dist. Ont.) Capt. in the Grenville Militia about 1803. Moved to York afterwards.

Capt Samuel Sherwood received commission in Hastings Militia in 1798, 2nd Master of Thurlow Lodge No. 17 in 1803, had slaves at Thurlow, where he lived on lot 9, was an Indian Trader, an assitant surveyor to Louis Kotte for Fredricksburgh (I think) cut masts on the front of Sidney for the Br. Navy before 1800(I can not find the reference of it) No mention of him after 1803 in Thurlow that I know of.

Any help will be appreciated, thank you.

The enclosed clipping is for your Post files.

Allan

Samuel 1-13-90 It is likewise stated that Samuel Sherwood never had an officer's commission, altho' he received lds. as a rebatter. The Dep.
Genr.-Genr. observed that Mr. Sherwood without further claim than that of a mere settler, counting the number of persons in his family & including the additional bounty, i.e. not received more land than he is entitled to. The report of the board considered the Committee cannot recommend
Mr. Sherwood for an addition to the quantity of land

808. further evidence in Case of Japt. Justus Sherwood.

Montreal, Aug. 13, 1787.

Claimt. produces letter from Govr. Haldimand from which it appears he was confidently employd in secret service of Importance.

Produces a parcel of old Deeds much injured. They appear to be purchases made by Claimt. between 72 & Jany. 75 of different parcels of Land & Rights in different Townships in Vermont, appearing to Correspond with the Acct.
given by Claimt. on his ~~appearing~~ first examination. The Jonsidn. cannot be exactly made out. Seems to have been small.

Claimt. says he purchased Land held under the New Hampshire Grants.

1046. Claim of Thomas Sherwood, late of Charlotte Co. Montreal, Jan. 25

Claimt. says: He was at St. Johns, chiefly in the fall '83.

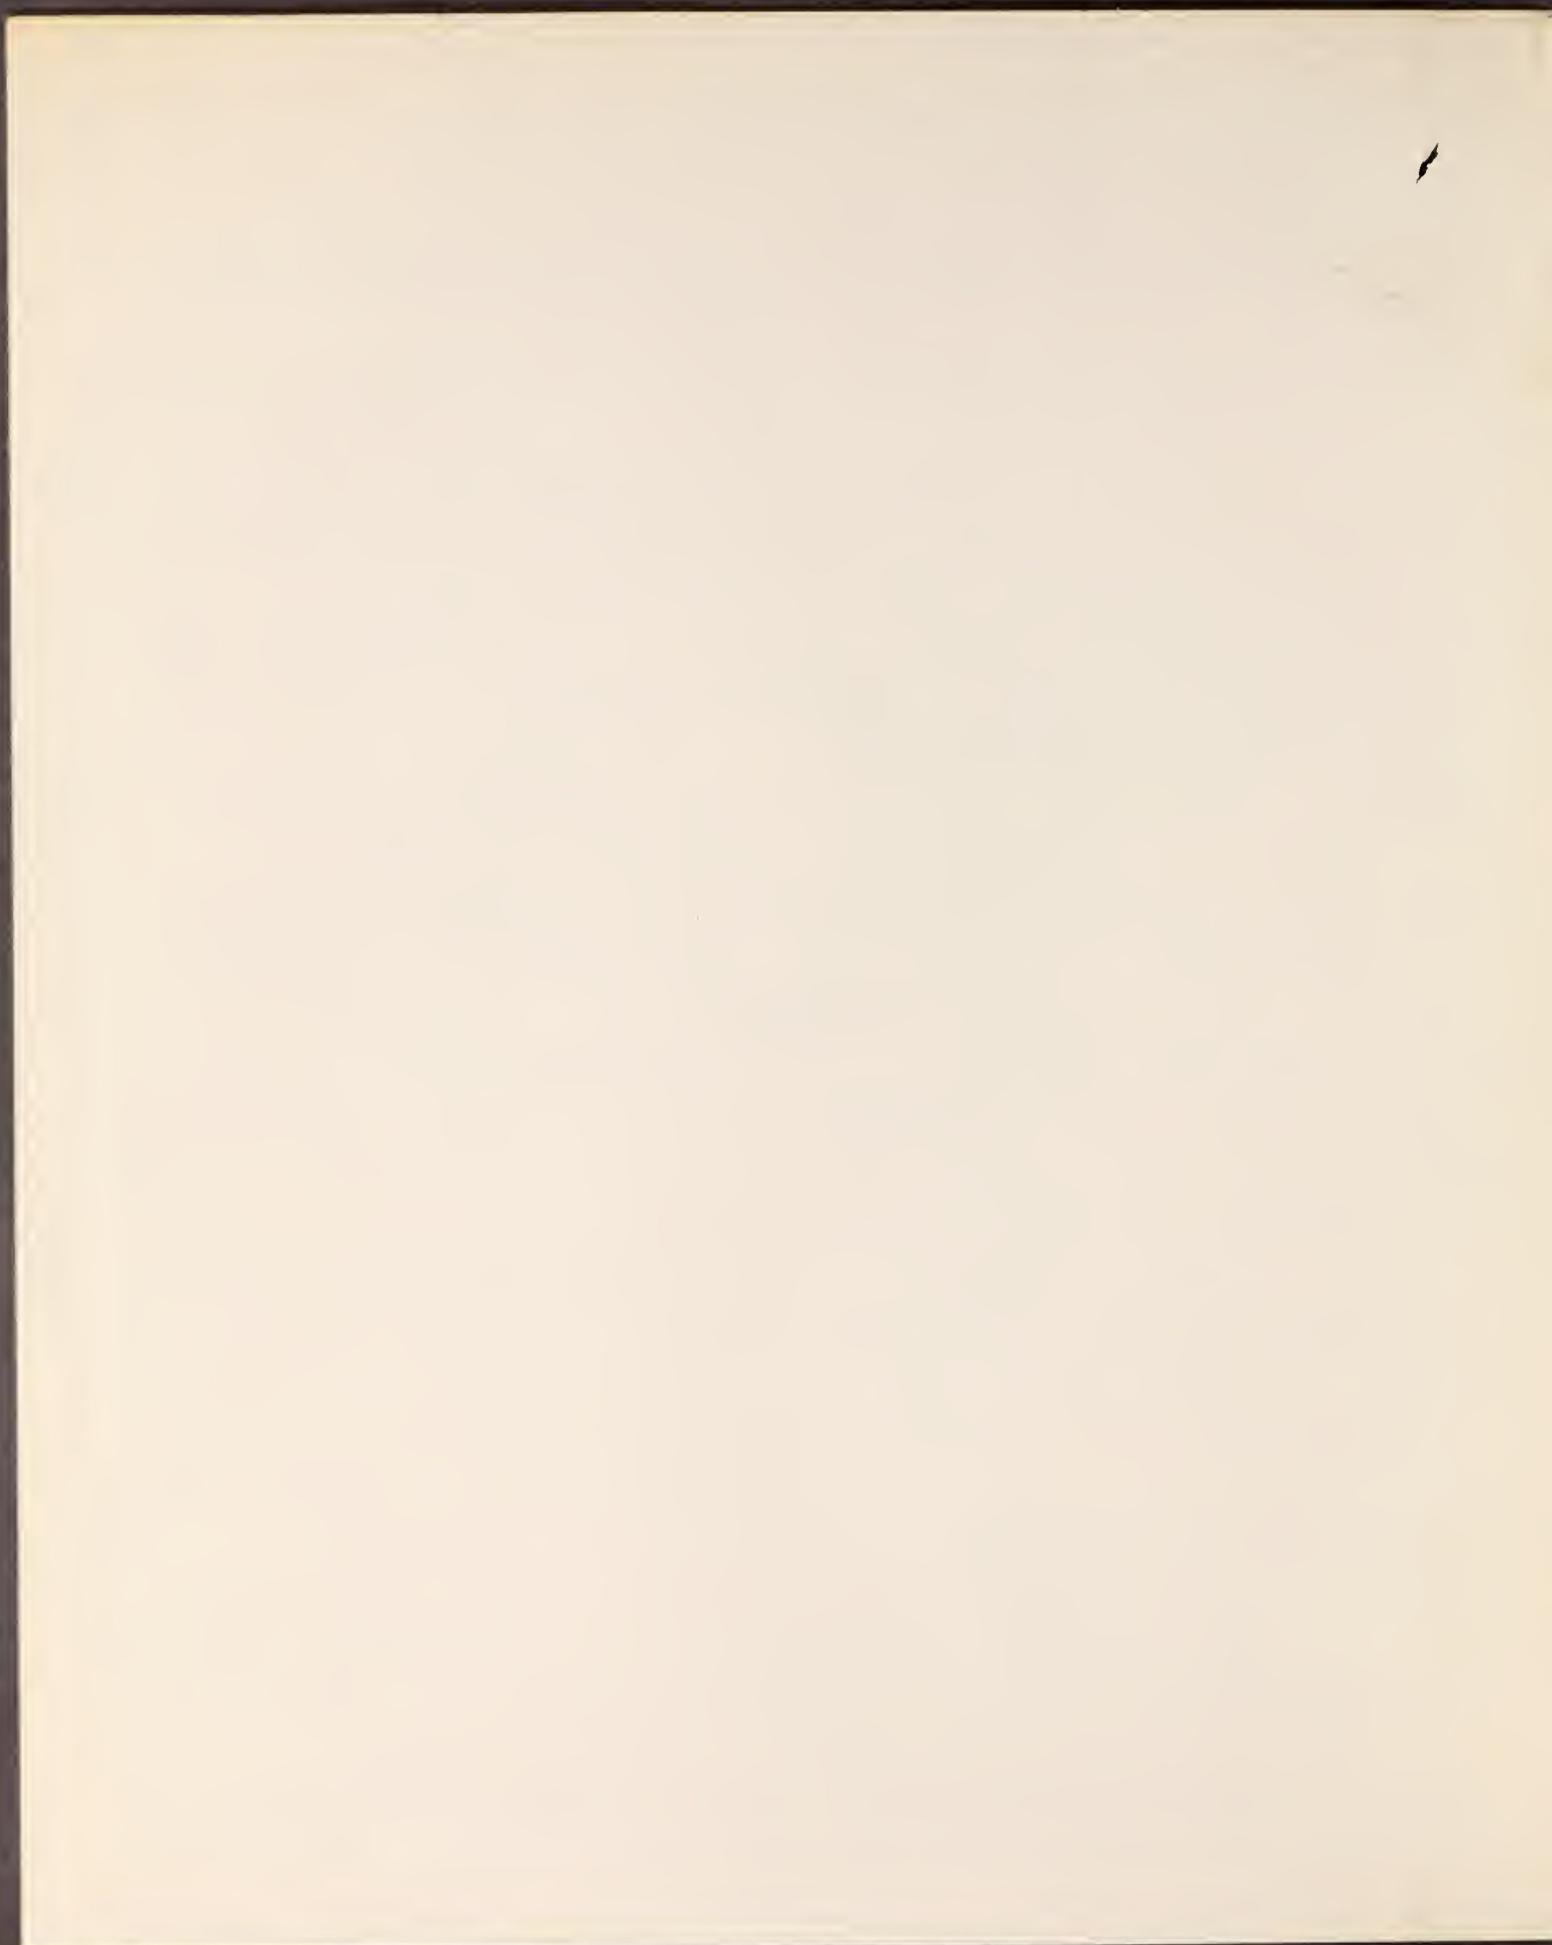

Is a nat. of America. Resided at Kingsbury near Fort Edward, Charlotte Co., not Vermont. Joined the Brit. in '77. After his Retreat staid 1 year, then came into Canada & served in Major Jessup's Regt. Has now $\frac{1}{2}$ Pay as Ensign. Resides at Osswigatchie.

Had 150 acres at Kingsbury. Had a Lease from Joseph Smith for 999 yrs.
at 18 D. per ann. After 7 years with a right to purchase at 2 Dollars per acre.
He had not made his Purchase tho. he had the money ready to do it. Claimt.
says the Lease was of 242 acres granted to Seth Sherwood originally; who granted ~~it~~ $\frac{1}{2}$ the Lot by assingment to Claimt. Entered upon it 6 or 7 years before the war. Had cleared 120 acres, made ye Improvemts, after the assignment, built 1 house and 2 Barns.

Claimt. had a Brother in the Rebel service who was once in Possession of it. Lost 1 yoke of oxen, cart & chain, which were sent to Burgoyne's Camp & were lost. The Rebels got them. 1 yoke of oxen, 1 Cow, seven Swine, Hay, utensils, furniture, some destroyed. Many articles left on his Place, when he left the Country.

Caleb Closson, Wits.:

Knew Claimt. He was always considered as a Loyalist. Joined Burg. in '77.
knew his Place at Kingsbury. He had been possessed of it many years before the war. He had a Lease of a Farm of about 150 acres as Witness thinks.

Thinks 100 acres were clear. An indifferent house, but 2 large Log Barns. The Lease was originally to Seth Sherwood, who assigned part to Claimt., half the Lot. Witness attested the Deed. Claimant himself made the Improvements.

Believes Dial Sherwood, who was an officer in the Rebel Army, has the Lands now.

Lemuel Caswell, Wits.

Knew Claimt.'s Farm. It was in partnership between Claimt. & his Bro. Claimt. was owner of half. He made the Improvements after the assignment from his Bro. Cleared 120 acres.

Further Evidence on the Claim of Thos. Sherwood, late of Fort Edward, Kingsbury, N. York Province. Owegatchie, 23 May, 1788.

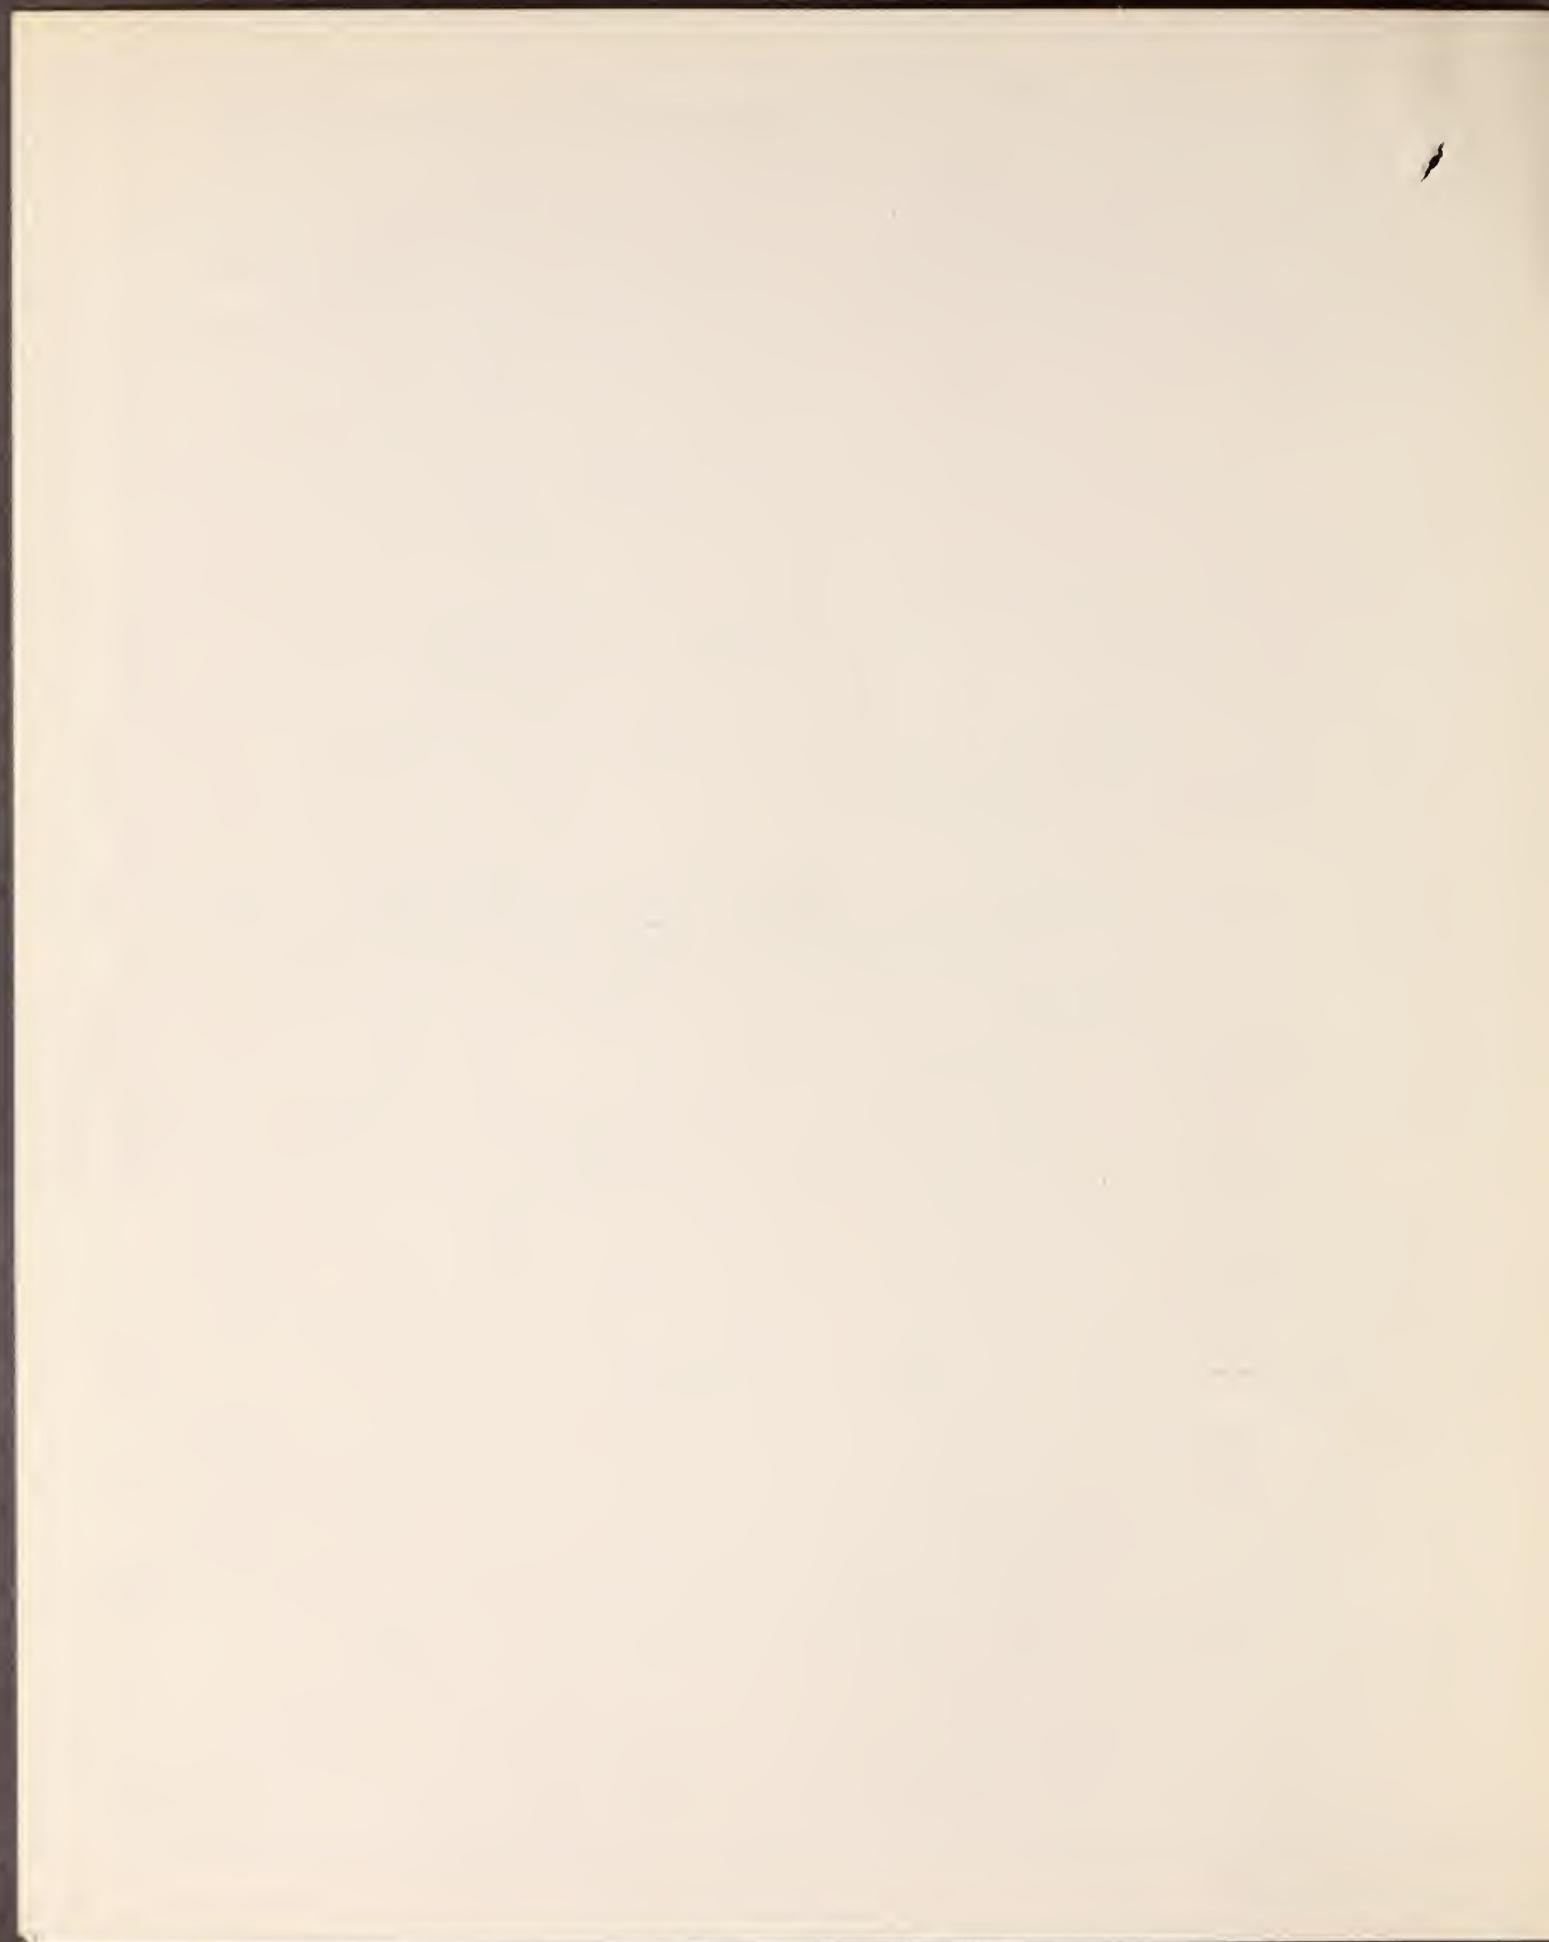

Wits., Alexr. Campbell, Sworn:

Says that Claimt. possessed a Leasehold farm before the War. The Lands belonged to Mr. Smith of New York. Believes that his bargain was that he might have purchased---time for 2 Dollars pr. acre.

Witness knows that he had a large Clearance on this farm. His Bro. in the ---- of N. York told him there was 100 acres cleared.

In 1786 Wits. carried a power of Attorney to Claimt.'s Bro. to act for him. They told him that the Lands were Confiscated & that the Lands were all sold. Mr. Sherwood cannot return into the State of N. York on his own affairs on acct. of the active part he took in the course of the War.

Dear Sir,-

Enc.

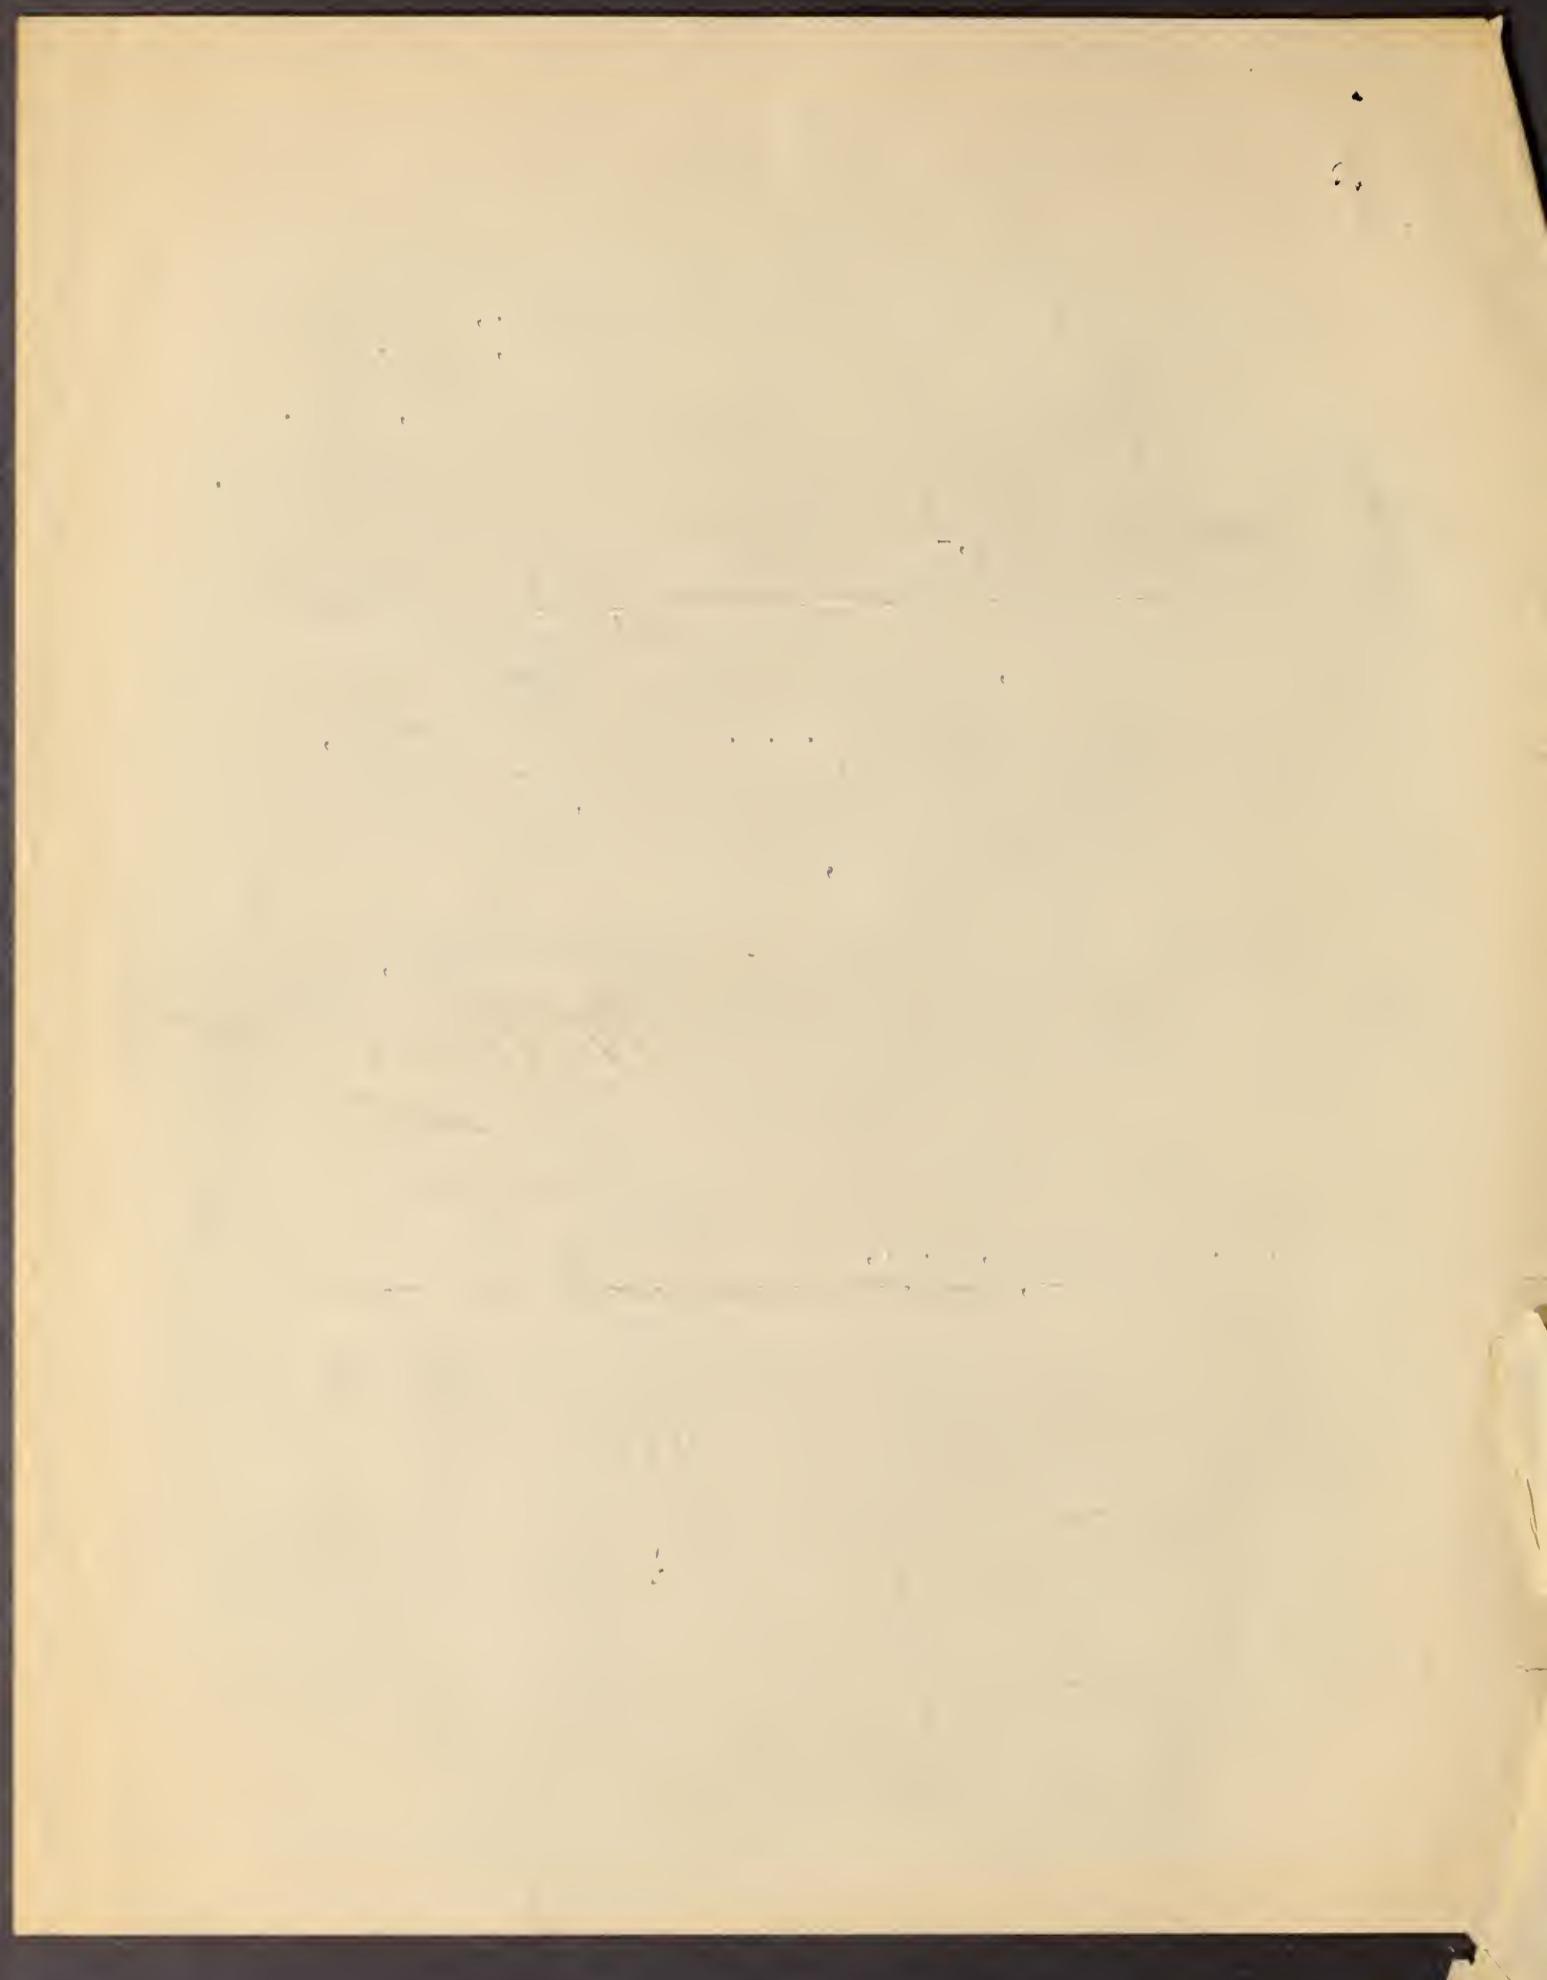

In reply to yours of the 29th ultimo, beg to enclose a short sketch of what I think may be of interest for insertion in the U.E.L. Book of Remembrance, which it is proposed to publish. Use any portion considered advisable, and if you think of any additional information required, pray command me,

Yours faithfully,

*A. L. Lang Shewell
M.V.O.*

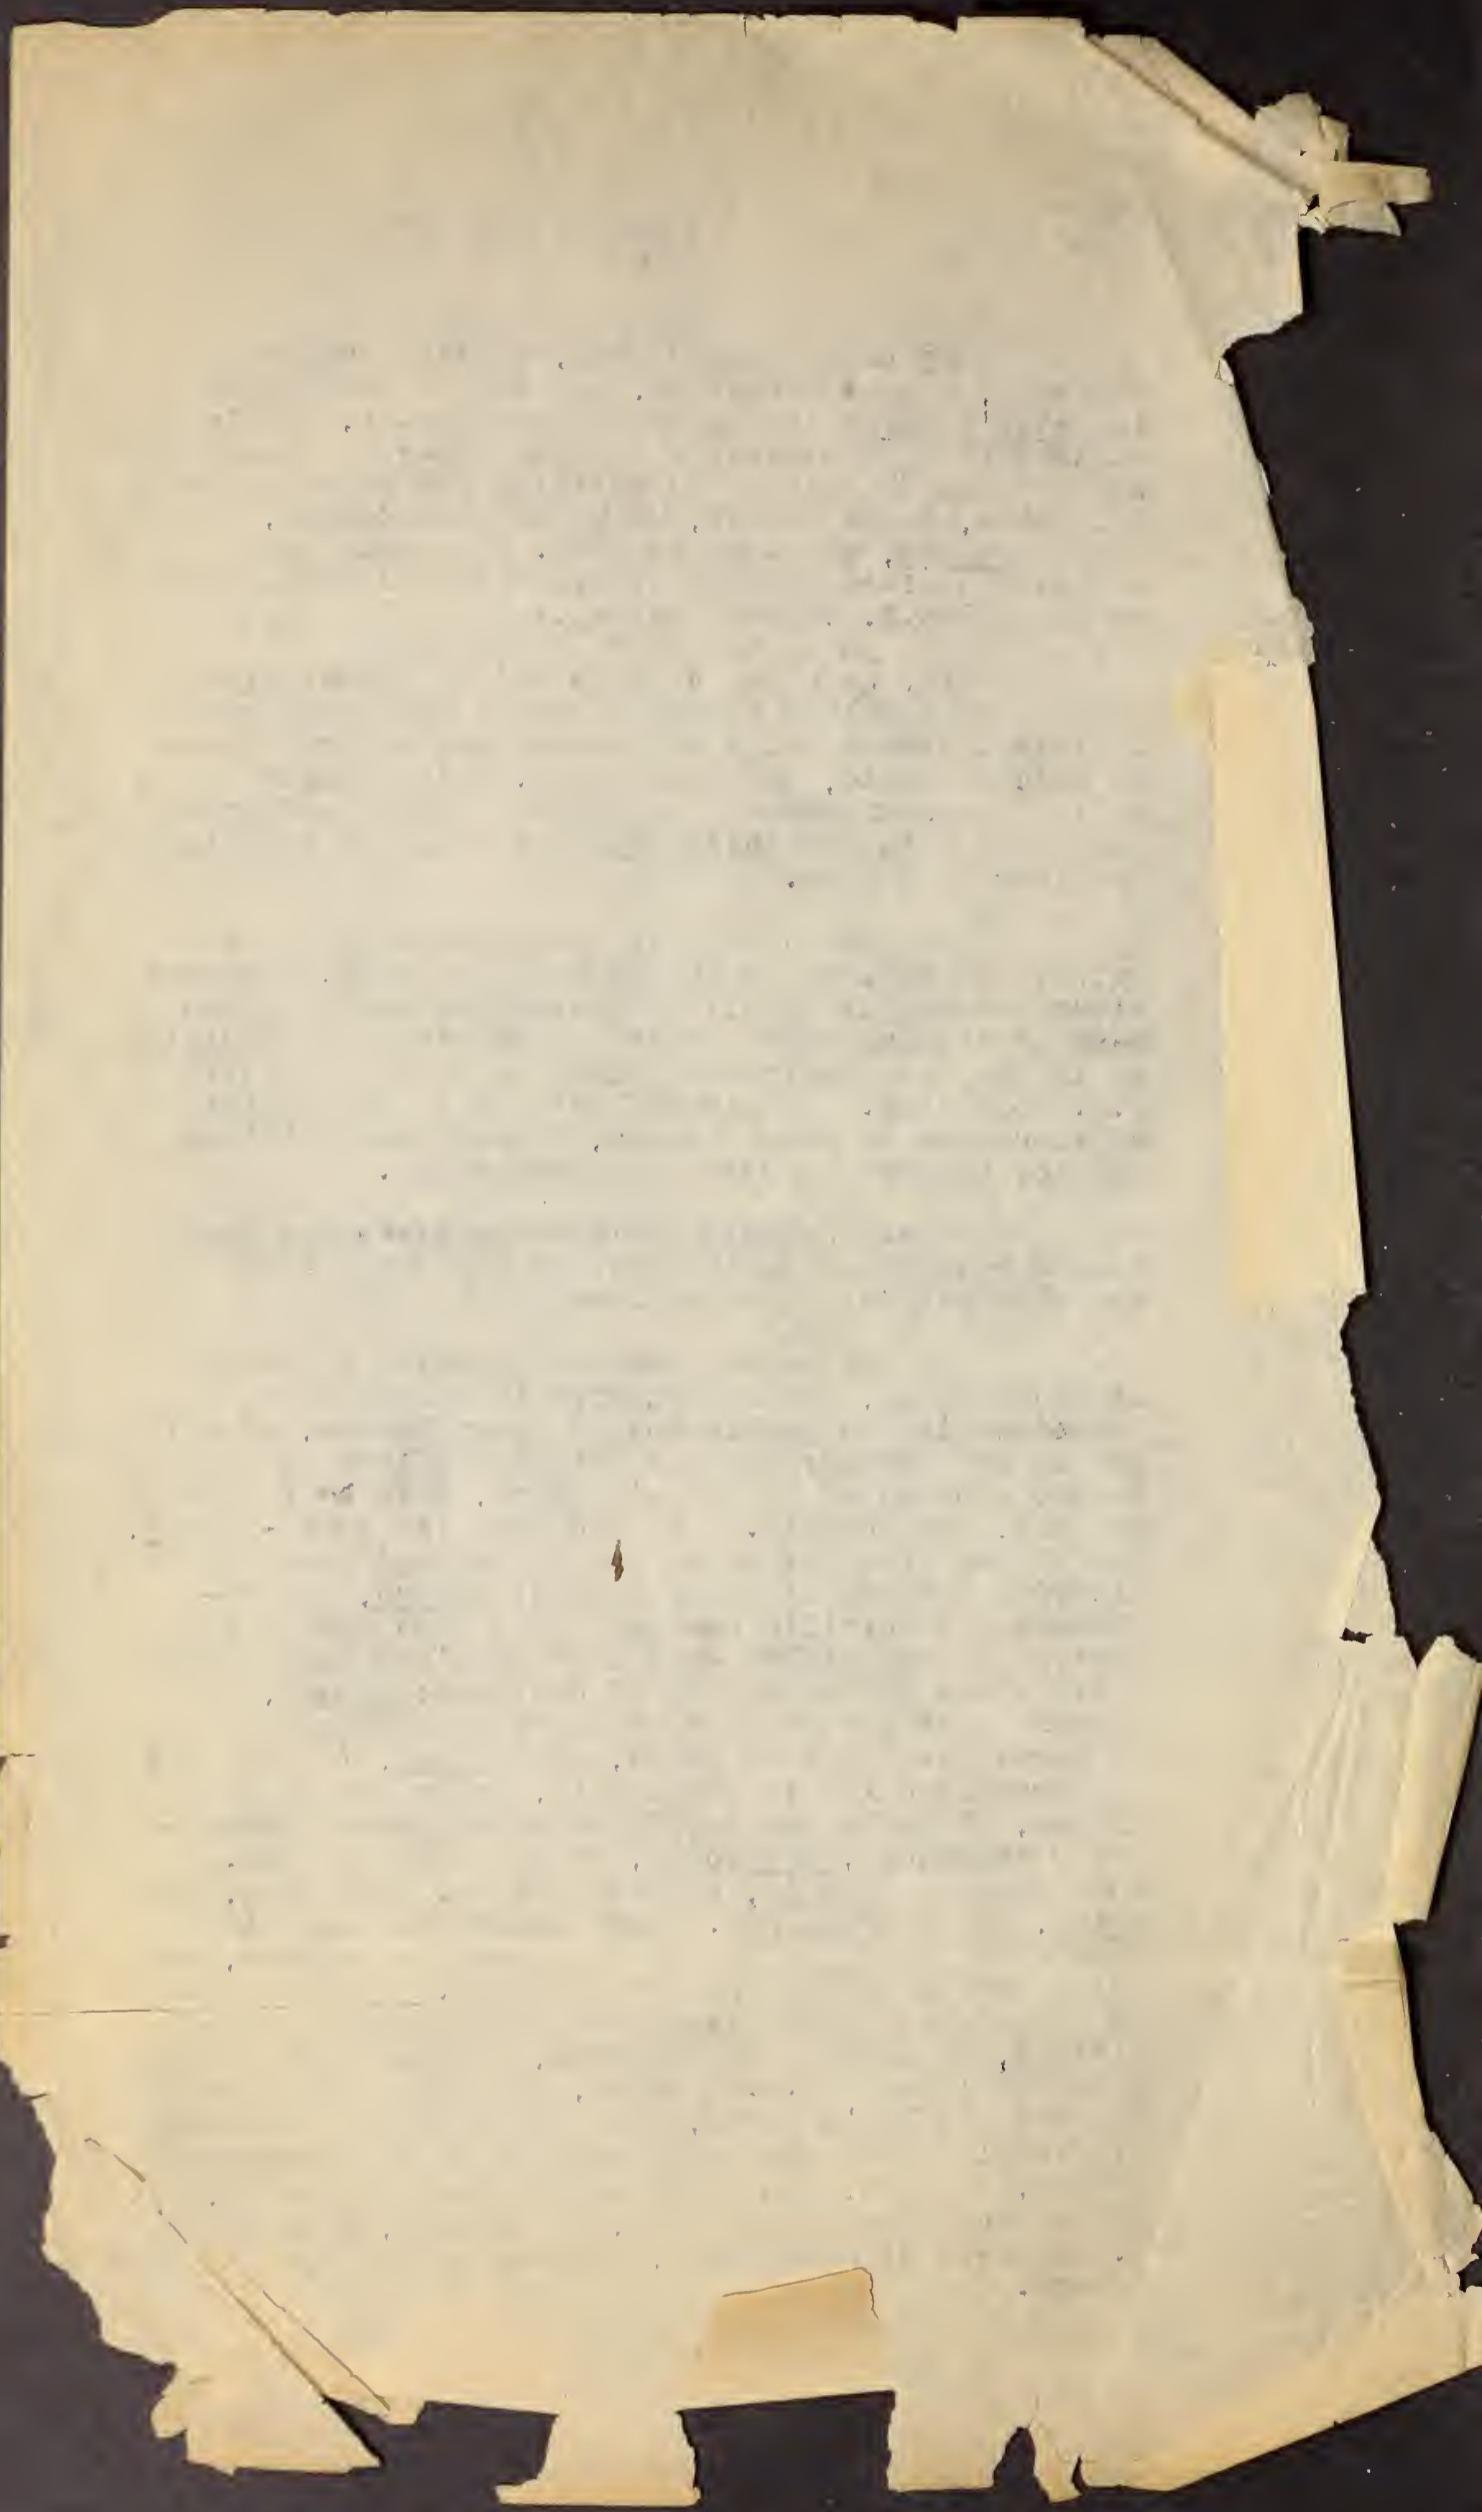

My Great Grandfather, Captain Justus Sherwood, was a Vermonter, and held a commission in Peter's Horse in the Revolutionary War, afterwards with a considerable company entering Canada by way of Lake Champlain and settling for sometime in St. Johns, Lower Canada, where my Grandfather, Livius Peters, was born in 1777. (The name was manifestly given because of his father's attachment to his old C.O. Colonel Peters.)

For defence purposes and to afford protection to Loyalist refugees coming from the South Captain Sherwood built and garrisoned a Block House on Isle La Motte, Lake Champlain. His reports to the Governor General in regard to that and other matters are in the Haldimand papers in the Dominion Archives in Ottawa.

He also conducted an exploration for the Authorities in 1783 of the Shores of the St. Lawrence River and Bay of Quinte from about Cornwall to the head of the Bay with a view to arriving at a decision as to the most desirable points on which to settle U.E. Loyalists. He himself settled in the District of Johnstown in Upper Canada, about where Maitland now is, between Prescott and Brockville.

(The "Kingston Whig" some years ago published extracts from this report which material was obtained from the Archives.)

Livius Peters Sherwood married a daughter of Judge Jones, and represented the District of Johnstown in the Parliament of Upper Canada, of which he was the Speaker for one term and afterwards became a Judge of the King's Bench, when he removed to York, now Toronto. He had four (4) sons - Henry, who at one time was Mayor of Toronto and later Attorney General of Upper Canada; George, who represented Brockville and was for a time Receiver General in one of Sir John Macdonald's Cabinets and later Judge of the County of Hastings; Samuel, a former Chief Constable of Toronto and after Registrar of Deeds for the same place, and Edward, (my father) who practiced law in Brockville, later moving to Bytown, where he was appointed Registrar of Deeds - and 3 daughters, Charlotte, who married the Hon. John Elmsley; Amelia, who married Dr. John King, and Helen, who married Hon. John Crawford, at one time Member for West Toronto in the House of Commons, and later Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. Descendants of these whom I can recall are Major General James Elmsley, Commanding at Kingston, Grandson of Charlotte; Major H.S. Sherwood, Engineer Officer on General Elmsley's Staff, also of Kingston, Grandson of Henry; George Sherwood Crawford of 26 Rowanwood Avenue, Toronto, son of Helen; and Henry Sherwood, 182 Lisgar Street this City, my brother, also Edward S. Sherwood of Rockcliffe, Ottawa, a Grandson of Edward.

Dear Sir -
I am working on the family history of my husband's parents.
Donald Macdonald (McDonald)
Lucy Sherwood.

Have you any information on the Sherwood family that would fit in our genealogy.

Theodore Sherwood the gr. grandfather of Lucy was born about 1796 in Wenbatch in the French border. He took part in the war of 1812. Charged only about 16 - He rode horseback between Hamilton & Niagara carrying mail. His family may have settled in King about 1830. Theodore died June 5th 1851. We know Theodore had 2 sons Peter Paul and Moses.
Moses died Sept. 22 - 1910 and is
